Placements landed by different Majors

Percentage of students from varied disciplines

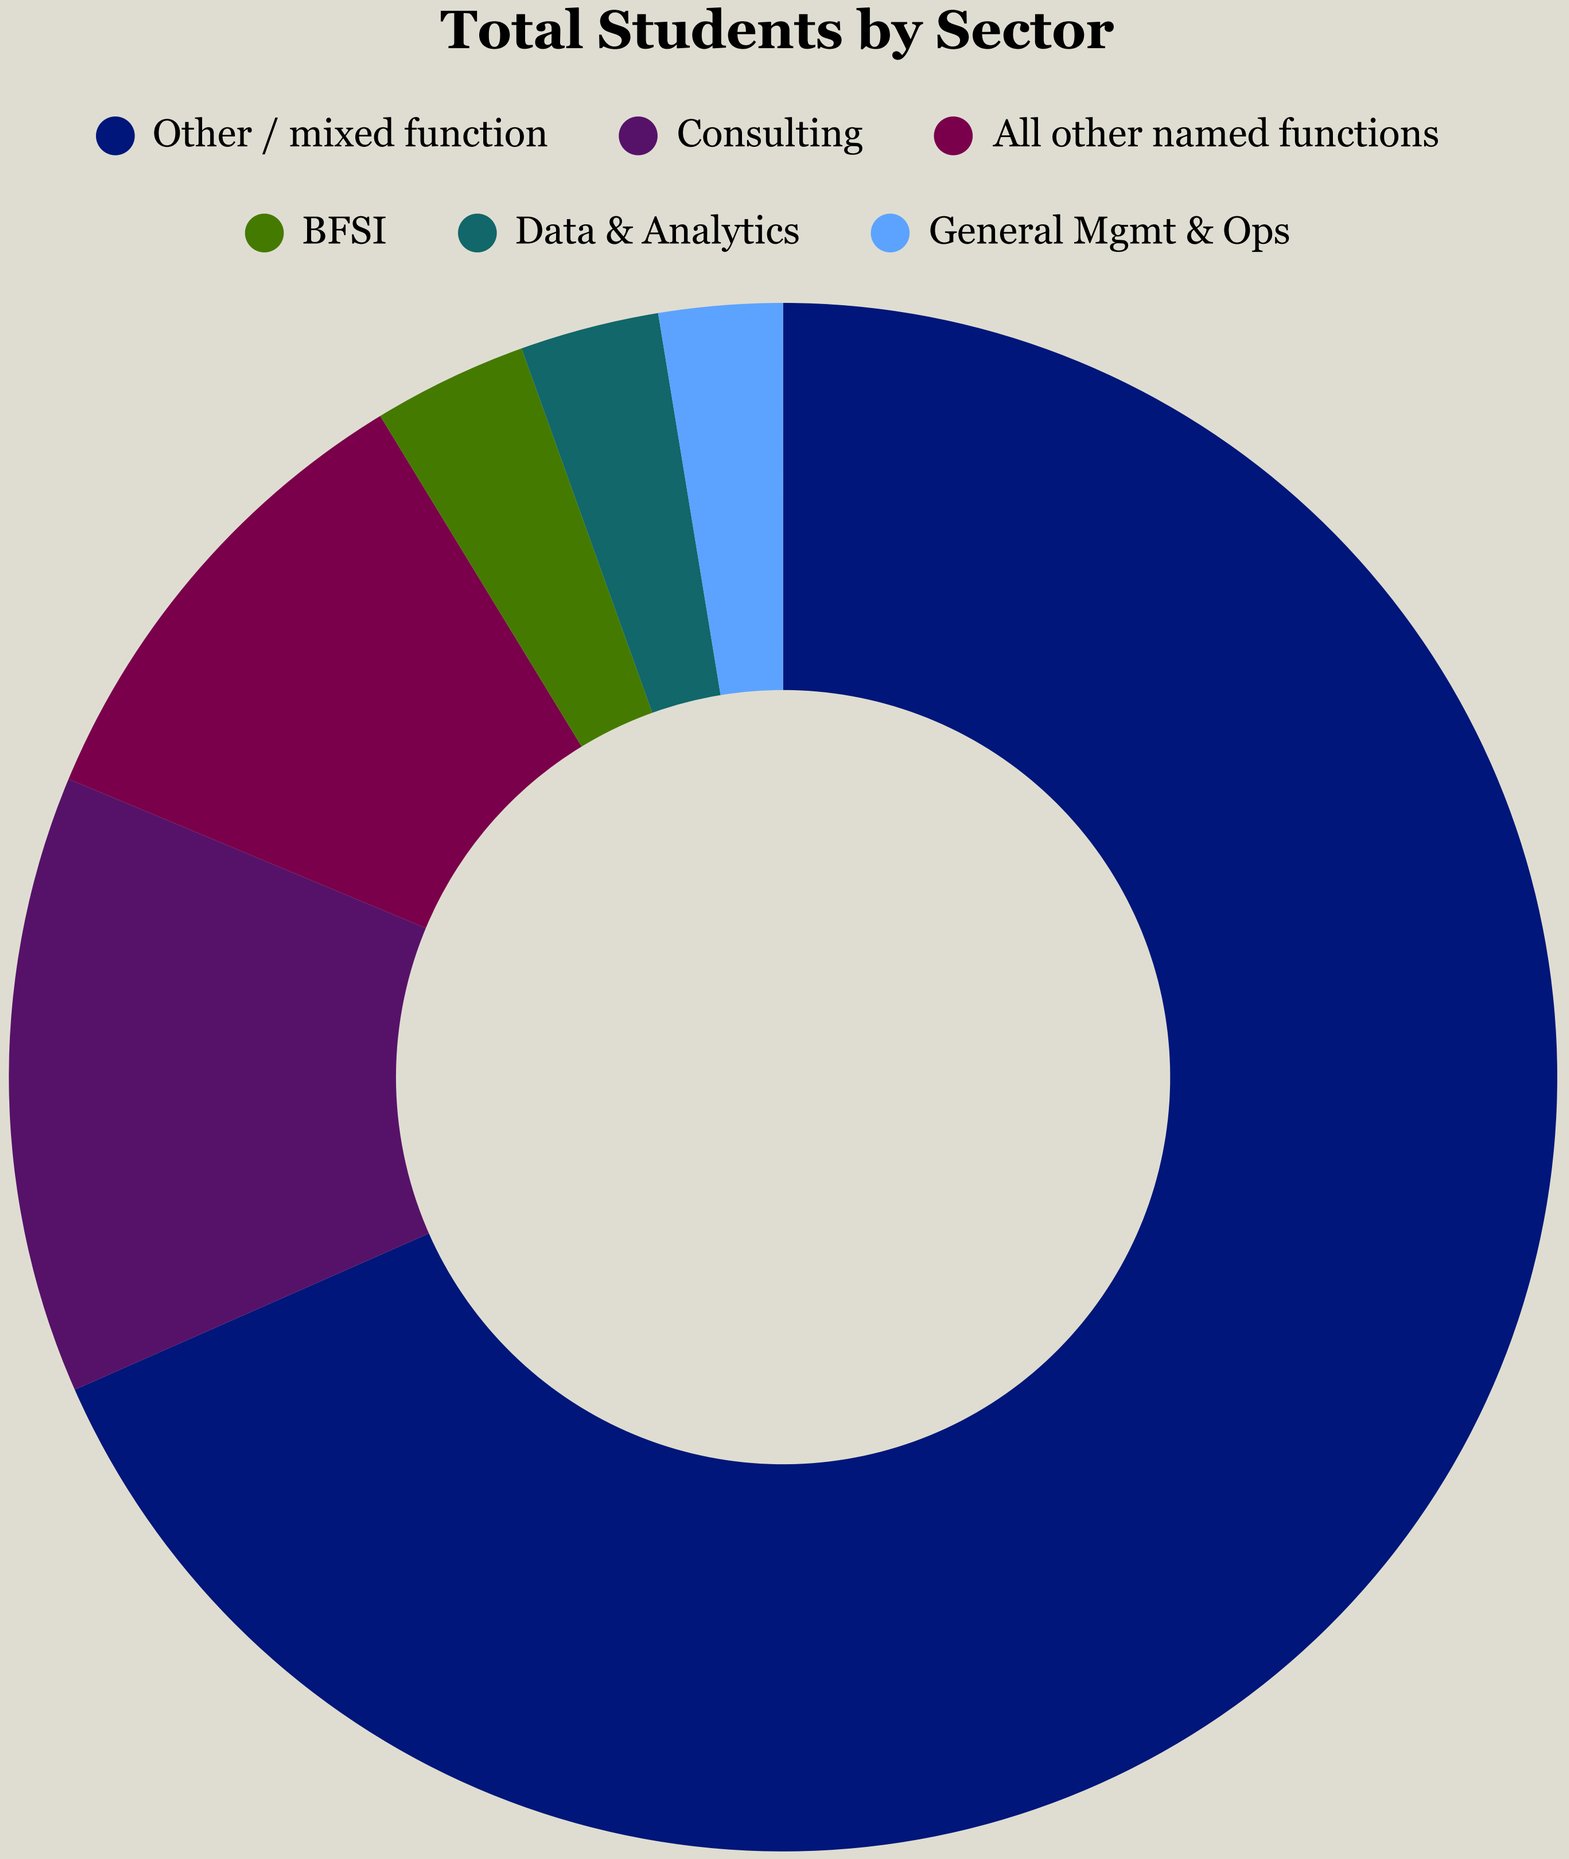

38% of all placements came from B.Sc. (Hons) Economics & Finance — 118 students, the single largest group.

40+ other undergraduate & postgraduate courses are represented, from Computer Science to Media Studies.

12% came from the Young India Fellowship, a one-year postgraduate programme — strong engagement despite its short duration.

Percentage of placements in each sector

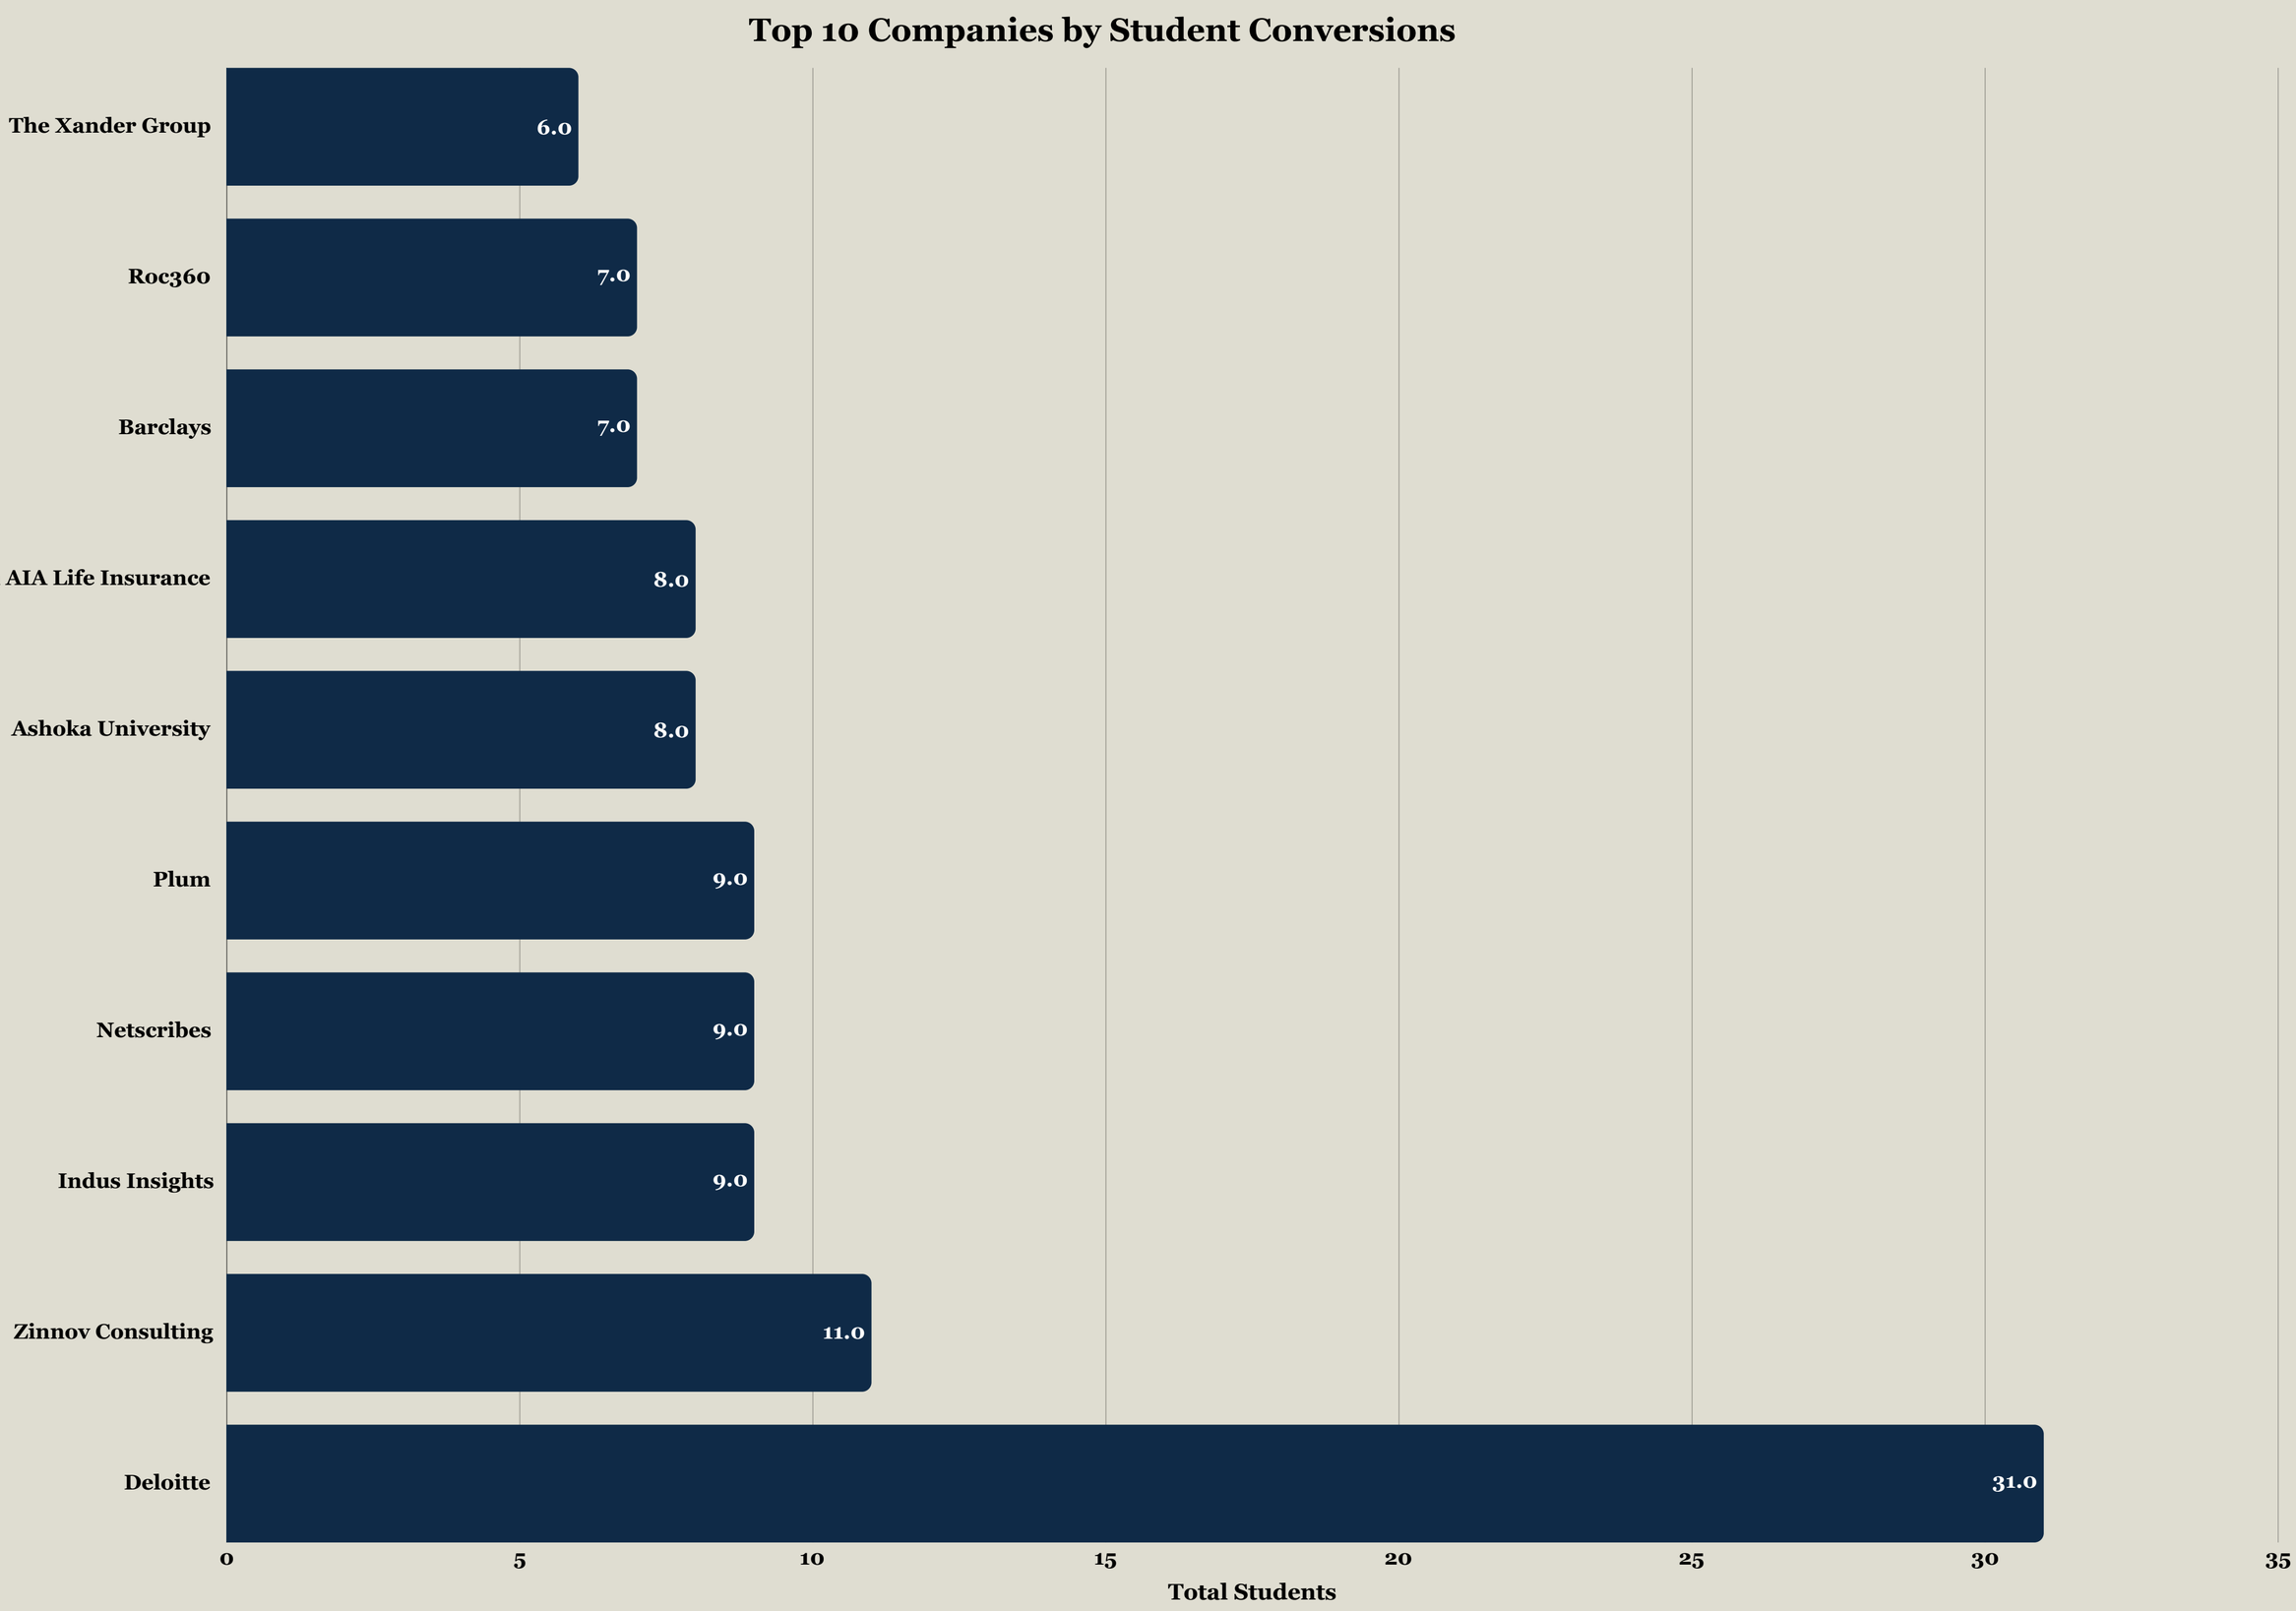

69% of roles are grouped under “Other” — many recruiters don’t tag a role into one standard function, or it spans several (e.g. strategy + operations).

13% of classified roles were in Consulting, the largest clearly identifiable function.

3% were in BFSI and roughly the same share in Data & Analytics — steady, if smaller, pathways.

Which companies convert the most students?

ANALYSED SUMMARY:

- Deloitte alone placed 31 students — nearly 3× the next-highest recruiter.
- Together, the top 10 recruiters accounted for 104 placements — about a third of the entire class.
- Zinnov Consulting (11) · Indus Insights, Netscribes & Plum (9 each) · Ashoka University & TATA AIA Life Insurance (8 each) · Barclays & Roc360 (7 each) · The Xander Group (6)
