Manager – Social Sector Capacity Building

Location: Mumbai

- Do you have 5 years of experience in the development sector with background of working with leadership development programs?
- Are you excited about building a cadre of skilled & competent leaders for NGOs?
- Do you enjoy working with people and thrive in a fast-paced collaborative environment?

If so, then this may be the job opportunity you are searching for. A.T.E. Chandra Foundation is looking for an Asst. Manager for Social Sector Capacity Building (SSCB) vertical.

About A.T.E Chandra Foundation

A.T.E. Chandra Foundation is one of India's leading philanthropic foundations in terms of scale and nature of work, managing the charitable giving of Archana & Amit Chandra and the A.T.E. Group. We strategically invest in ideas that generate highest SROI (social return on investment) because we believe in the power of 'multiplier' and are driven to maximize our philanthropic impact by leveraging our resources. Our approach towards problem-solving any societal issue is threefold wherein:

1. we deeply engage in understanding the root cause by investing in research & development
2. work directly or with partners in implementing the solutions to build evidence of success, failures and learnings
3. build knowledge templates to disseminate widely for the larger sector to adopt good practices

Our efforts are equally distributed between implementation and advocacy so as to play a catalytic role in solving for the issues at scale that impacts the sector at large. Our founders spend substantial amount of their time working very closely with the small, tight knit team to collectively impact the below mentioned focus areas:

a. Social Sector Capacity Building (SSCB) focused to drive investments in building ecosystem capabilities of the sector and organizational effectiveness
b. Sustainable Rural Development [SRD] focused at addressing key rural issues and supports initiatives such as desilting of water bodies and natural farming
c. Goodwill supporting various projects but largely focused on (i) domestic violence against women (ii) urban governance (iii) afforestation. We have also supported large legacy projects such as SRCC Children's Hospital, Ashoka University and Give India under this portfolio.

About the role

Within the Social Sector Capacity Building vertical, we have 3 sub-verticals that focuses on:

1. Centre of Excellence (COE) - Building the capacity of NGOs to sustain their organization and scale their impact
2. Leadership Development Program (LDP) - Developing a cadre of trained professional leaders and promoting the concept of investing in leadership development in NGOs in India.
3. Promotion of Philanthropy (POP) - Supporting organisations and movements that aim to increase retail and philanthropic giving

In this role, you will work closely with entities providing large Leadership Development Programs (LDP) for the social sector to ideate & support new courses, manage grants process and measure outcomes. You will also work with service providers to design the impact assessment framework and disseminate the knowledge and learnings to the wider community. The key objective is to influence NGO leaders to sign-up for these leadership programs and for funding agencies to support them to improve NGO's overall efficiency and effectiveness. A Successful Asst. Manager will:

- Manage relationships with partners that involves scouting for new partners catering to urban & rural NGOs, proposal evaluations, building success metrics, consistent monitoring & evaluation & reporting on impact

- Work with leading consultants to build monitoring and evaluation framework to assess the impact of leadership programs on the long-term success of NGOs including looking at Net Promoter Score (NPS) framework
- Working with NGO partners to identify their emerging leadership needs that reflects the changing social & economic context, understand their challenges and background and build a need assessment study that informs the Foundation's funding decisions
- Working with a communications agency to build & disseminate a resource repository of best practices, case studies, articles, video stories to showcase the impact of leadership trainings on NGO leaders. It will also include capturing and disseminating best practices of service providers offering the leadership programs on common challenges such as alumni engagement etc.
- Represent and participate as an observer in physical and virtual leadership programs, learning sessions, webinars, masterclasses, convenings or any other engagements to strengthen the existing portfolio's core capabilities
- Support the SSCB Head in project management for other ecosystem initiatives that is focused on mobilising talent & capital to the sector

What you bring to the table

- A post-graduate degree from any field
- 5+ years of work experience in the social sector, preferably with a grant-making foundation or philanthropic advisory organisations
- Knowledge of leadership development competencies and developing frameworks for learning programs, talent management
- Effective communications & networking skills to build partnerships with key stakeholders
- Knowledge of MS Office, especially Excel for data analysis and PowerPoint for presentations
- Ability to make data-driven decision, strong analytical skills, execution excellence

What we offer you

- An open minded, inclusive, and collaborative culture of enthusiastic and passionate team members
- Deep understanding of leadership development competency frameworks
- Working with a portfolio of learning programs to understand their success, learnings and challenges
- Networking opportunity with a diverse set of stakeholders at ecosystem level

Other benefits:

- Competitive remuneration with Insurances and other benefits
- Inclusive team that has fun in and outside the office
- Opportunity to directly work with and learn from our founders
- A beautiful office located in the Art Deco precinct of Mumbai

Duration: Full time

Location: Based in Mumbai (basis State level WFH guidelines). We are not looking for employees working from remote location for this role.

How to apply: Please send in your CV to mycv@fingertipsindia.com with the subject line 'Application for the position of ATECF SSCB – Manager' along with a cover letter explaining why you are interested in the profile. The deadline for the application is 24th January 2022.