Corporate Business Advisors Pvt Ltd

Job Description – Investment Analyst: Derivatives

Name of the Company	Corporate Business Advisors Private Limited
Company Profile	Corporate Business Advisors (CBA) is an impact investing firm focused on making investments in early stage companies across impact sectors (SMEs, Financial Inclusion, Energy, Health, Education, Water/ Sanitation, Rural Aggregation/ Distribution, Agriculture, etc.). It currently manages a few education focused funds and other early stage investments. CBA is a young company and is looking for candidate who are self-starters, conscientious and have the ability to work independently with little oversight.
Job Description	Investment Analyst: Derivatives The Analyst will be responsible for performing portfolio management services in public markets using derivative and other synthetic instruments. The role includes dealing with options and future trading, keeping a track of the market and derivative trading business and performing daily operational activities. It will involve ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements and internal control standards and preparing and analysing financials, metrics and reports.
Candidate Profile	The candidates * Should have an interest in trading in public markets * Independently solve moderately complex issues with minimal supervision, while escalating more complex issues to appropriate senior * Comfortable with working with exchange listed futures, options and over the counter cleared derivatives and other relevant financial instruments on commodities * Must possess good communication skills; * Must be comfortable with numbers; * Must know MS Office Suite of Software. The candidate must have a Master's Degree in Business and/ or Economics
Location	Remote, will involve travel
Selection Process	* Resume Shortlist * Personal Interview (No. of rounds - 2)