CAMP K12: CONTENT WRITING & MARKETING ASSOCIATE

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Camp K12 is a global online school for 21st century skills. We teach Coding, English and STEM subjects to kids aged 5 - 18 via LIVE, interactive online sessions (1:1 and small-group) that take place in our gamified, virtual classrooms and work 10x better than a standard classroom environment for learning outcomes.

Founded by an MIT/Harvard alum (ex-Google, McKinsey) and the Ex-CEO of Apple India, Camp K12's core team hails from Wharton, Bain, BCG, IIT, Uber, Swiggy and more. Since inception in early 2020, our team has grown to a strength of 450+ and recently raised a Series A funding round with the intention to grow our team and build a global presence.

We have taught 320,000+ students in 30+ countries and we are currently monetizing in the US, India, SE Asia, Middle East and more. Camp K12 looks forward to becoming a one-stop shop for the needs of 21st century parents and students.
