About CCS

Centre for Civil Society is an independent public policy think tank based in New Delhi working on outreach, research, and advocacy on critical public policy issues that affect India. For the last couple of years, CCS has built a strong portfolio of research and advocacy in education, livelihoods, and governance. CCS offers challenging opportunities in a unique, high-energy, and vibrant work environment. The salary will be commensurate with experience.

About the project

English Bolo is a unique initiative of the Centre for Civil Society that aims to empower over students from low-income families with Spoken English Skills. The project is founded on learnings gathered from existing studies that have used mobile applications to support learners from low-income families to practice English language skills. Engagement with three key stakeholders i.e. Schools, Teachers, and Parents, and structured support to children to practice English language skills stand out as core features of this initiative. This three-year project is supported by prominent philanthropic entities as well as outreach partners which include associations of private schools, service providers, and school finance entities.

We have successfully completed the pilot phase of this project with 30,000 students, 150 schools and 500 teachers from schools in Haryana, Tamil Nadu, Telangana, Maharashtra, and Andhra Pradesh. We are now looking to scale the project to 60,000 students in the year 2021-22. School Engagement Team Lead is an important role in this project directly impacting the empanelment and retention of students, two main areas of overall project outcomes.

School Engagement Team Lead will manage the ongoing execution of the Project Bolo English effectively, and strengthen the relationships with the stakeholders (school leadership, teachers, parents). She / He will plan and track processes, follow-up with multiple stakeholders, and facilitate online training sessions to ensure high engagement of students in the program.
