The position requires a large amount of quantitative research. The table below gives a brief snapshot of expected skills:

Area	Mandatory	Desirable
Education and work	Master's degree in Economics/Public Policy/Development Studies/any other relevant social science discipline	At least 2-3 years of work experience. Understanding of and prior experience in public finance is preferable
Data Analysis	Strong quantitative data analysis skills. Knowledge of statistical packages (such as Stata, R, or SPSS)	Worked with large quantitative datasets. Experience in qualitative research methods
Public Policy	Basic familiarity with National and State Social Sector Schemes, Public Finance data etc.	In-depth knowledge of Indian polity: on health, education and nutrition, including major social sector schemes
Other Skills	Problem-solving, Stakeholder Management, Communication, Report Writing, Presentation Skills	Other desirable skills include: managing teams and projects
Languages	Fluency in English and Hindi	Working knowledge of other Indian languages