Master Trainer

Company Description

Clever Harvey is an educational initiative to help students bridge the gap between academic learning and the real world.

Job Description

- Assess training needs and create strategies for professional development
- Provide training to facilitators of various backgrounds to standardize the student experience
- Measure facilitator progress through observations & quantifiable metrics
- Coordinate schedules between facilitators and operations team
- Create grievance redressal structures in coordination with the operations team
- Review all programs and organizational activities to deliver clear instruction and facilitate engaging learning experiences
- Monitor operations requirements and plan recruitment and training schedules accordingly

Job Requirements

- A Bachelor's/Master's degree in any field
- A minimum of two years experience in education or corporate training
- Experience in working with software like Thunkable, Google Data Studios, Canva, etc
- Should be willing to commute to the office in Mumbai
- Should be comfortable 6 day work week (12 pm to 9 pm work shift)
- Knowledge of instructional methods appropriate for students at the respective grade levels
- Proficient in computer skills, Microsoft Office & instructional platforms
- Strong interpersonal & communication skills with all levels of management
- Excellent mentorship, team building, and management skills
- Attention to detail, self-motivated and solution-oriented

Salary [Per Annum]

5,00,000 - 6,00,000

To apply : Please reach out to Muskan on trainings@cleverharvey.com