Edbrand Writing Mentor Position

Are you an aspiring academic, researcher, or an intellectual thinker interested in mentoring high school students primarily with economics or related projects, and gaining valuable experience in an Education firm?

Then you should seriously consider working at Edbrand. Not only will you have substantial autonomy in your work, but you will also have the opportunity to work in a collaborative, non hierarchical environment that will foster your own growth and development.

Edbrand is an education consultancy firm that wants to empower its students by providing quality mentoring services and out of class education opportunities. Our goal is to help students achieve their full potential and positively impact the world.

Our primary focus is on providing the best-in-class guidance and counselling for students seeking undergraduate and postgraduate admissions in top universities across the world. Concurrently we have also developed alternative learning routes and supplementary curricula for our students. With a strong emphasis on project-based learning and the growth of our students as intellectuals and leaders, we have been successful in facilitating our students in their admission to right-fit colleges. This has also allowed us to create a thriving network of Edbrand alums who have blazed a trail through several, diverse industries and spheres of life.

Our goal now is to expand our services and capabilities to cater to a growing market. To achieve this we are looking for motivated, empathetic and generous specialists who want to enable students to develop into better versions of themselves and thus contribute to societal growth. The compensation would be well above industry average and self-driven individuals will find autonomy in their work and opportunity for self-development.

Details of the job:

Location: Gurgaon, Haryana. Currently, we are operating virtually (working from home) and official work from office will begin only when it is safe to do so.

Duration: Full-Time. 2 months trial period. Possibility of long term association only if the person fits the job profile.

Start Date: As soon as possible (Flexible based on the candidate).

Compensation: Rs. 60,000 per month depending on the candidate's ability. In case of long term association, there will be constant increases in compensation including performance bonuses.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- To understand and help the student reflect about their experiences, in the process helping build a profile of the student.
- To work with high-school students to help them identify ideas and develop essays for college applications.
- To help the students execute their ideas, ensuring that the application deadlines are met.
- To work with students on other writing assignments, especially the ones that help develop their writing skills and match their profiles.
- To ideate and execute events and workshops that help in increasing the writing and intellectual capabilities of the students.

There are potential leadership opportunities for an employee to ideate, execute and lead new projects that build on our core service and add value to our students.

Skills, Competencies and Qualities:

- Writing: we're looking for experience writing essays for college, articles for student publications or newspapers, blog posts. Ideally, you've had some experience with different styles of writing.
- Editing: if you've had experience working as a writing tutor, mentor or guide (for instance, at your college's Writing Center), this is certainly a plus.
- Interacting with young people between 15–18 years: any experience you have in working with young students, whether in the form of service/community engagement initiatives, internships, or work experience. If you have led a group of young people at college, for any kind of activity, please tell us about your role and responsibilities.
- Project Management: if you've had experience envisioning, executing and leading various types of projects that can help high school students execute their own projects then that is certainly a plus.

- Enjoy engaging with young people: this is absolutely essential, since it'll be the bulk of your work and time.
- Organised and timely: students depend on you for guidance and feedback, so it's important that you're prompt and organised in your interactions with them (setting up meetings, sending feedback, monitoring progress, and informing senior colleagues if there are problems along the way).

Takeaways:

- Monetary and professional growth in the long term with an increase in responsibilities and opportunities.
- Additional bonus in case of exceptional performance.
- Letter of Recommendation (conditional on performance). Edbrand will be supportive of your long term study plans
- Guidance and Mentorship from a supportive and collaborative team.
- Leadership opportunities to work and contribute in other areas, if interested.

Applications are being accepted on a rolling basis for 2 open positions. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an interview round.
