Powering the World of Good

About Goodera:

Goodera is an employee volunteering, CSR, and ESG management company that enables corporations, foundations, governments, non-profits, and employees across 90+ countries. Goodera empowers companies to provide engaging and impactful virtual volunteering experiences to their employees globally and achieve volunteering goals.

Through curated volunteering opportunities, end-to-end program management, and impact measurement, Goodera offers a seamless volunteering experience. Goodera enables non-profits to create a sustainable impact by raising money, increasing visibility, and building long-term volunteers for causes they support. Goodera is co-headquartered in San Mateo, CA, and Bangalore, India. For more details, please visit www.goodera.com.

Job Title: Content Writer, Full-time
Location: Bangalore

Responsibilities:

- Create new content across multiple formats (blogs, whitepapers, articles, e-books)
- Creating case studies and success stories as part of client testimonial section
- Support in implementing the social media strategy
- Creative campaign planning for Goodera standardized events
- Support in creating campaign collaterals- videos, posts, testimonials, and other marketing pieces.

Requirement:

- 1-3 years of work experience in digital marketing in B2C/B2B organizations
- Academic background in communications and marketing, preferrable and not necessary
- Strong ability to create content and an excellent command over English language
- Good understanding of leveraging social media
- Experience in social startups/NGOs would be preferred
- Ability to work in tight deadlines typical to a startup
- Ability to work in an outcome-oriented fashion