ICRIER IS HIRING

ICRIER invites applications for the position of a Research Assistant/ Research Associate for its Growth Employment and Macroeconomy (GEM) Team

The Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations (ICRIER), one of India's preeminent economic think tanks, is inviting applications for the position of a Research Assistant/ Research Associate for their Growth Employment and Macroeconomy (GEM) team. We are looking for bright, motivated and enthusiastic candidates interested in working on a wide range of development issues, and with a large and experienced team of economists, to support India's G20 Presidency.

Qualifications

Candidates with post graduate / Master's degree in economics, public policy or international relations are encouraged to apply. Candidates from different disciplines or with multi-disciplinary backgrounds with experience in policy work or inclined to transition to policy work are encouraged to apply. For the position of a Research Assistant work experience can vary between 0-2 years, however, for a Research Associate the candidate must have a minimum two years of work experience, post a Master's degree.

Knowledge and experience of both qualitative and quantitative research methods and familiarity with national and global economic databases will be necessary. Prior knowledge and research experience on global economic and political issues would be a plus. Fluency in oral and written English is a necessity. Good interpersonal skills and the ability to work in a team environment, and with multiple stakeholders, will be important.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Contribute to research related activities that include data collection, statistical analysis, literature review, report writing etc.
- Create and manage databases
- Write blogs, policy briefs and contribute to research products
- Organize and contribute to events and stakeholder consultations as per the requirement of different research projects
- Contribute to writing of research proposals, white papers, policy briefs and reports
- Contribute to institutional activities as necessary.