Job Description for Program Associate

India Leaders for Social Sector (ILSS) is a non-profit that aims to be India's preeminent leadership development organisation for the social sector. We aim to increase the effectiveness of the top 500 nonprofits in the sector by 2x to create catalytic impact at scale.

Overview

To achieve the mission, ILSS has a three-pronged approach:

- Bringing corporate talent into leadership and board positions in the social sector,
- Running well-researched capacity building programs in critical domains for the social sector,
- Building the social sector ecosystem to instil a strong focus on high-quality talent/ talent development.

Since 2017, ILSS has run successful programs like:

- 13 hybrid (in-person and online) leadership programs designed to enable senior leaders from various sectors to transition meaningfully into the social sector. The program currently has 250+ Alumni, out of which 132 have already transitioned to the social sector
- A fundraising program with over 50+ current Alumni
- A People Practices program enables organisation leaders in the sector to prioritise wholesome people practices, building the organisations' capabilities, growth prospects, and sustainability in the long run.
- A board program for CXOs in the corporate sector to serve as board members for nonprofits in the social sector
