SENIOR ANALYST - DATA ANALYTICS, CHENNAI, INDIA

Are you the one looking to change the world with Math and Models? At the core, we believe that business transformation = f (math + data + business knowledge). In the past, we have worked with a heady mix of algorithms, analysis, large databases and ROI to positively transform many a client's business performance

Job Summary:

Independently handle delivery of analytics assignments by mentoring a team of 3 – 10 people and deliver to exceed client expectations

Responsibilities:

- Co-ordinate with onsite LatentView consultants to ensure high quality, on-time delivery
- Take responsibility for technical skill-building within the organization (training, process definition, research of new tools and techniques etc.)
- Take part in organizational development activities to take LatentView to the next level

Qualification, Skills & Prior Work Experience:

- 20 to 35 months of work experience
- Great analytical skills, detail-oriented approach
- Sound knowledge in MS Office tools like Excel, Power Point and data visualization tools like Tableau
- Strong experience in SQL, SAS, SPSS, Statistica, R, MATLAB or such tools would be preferable
- Ability to adapt and thrive in the fast-paced environment that young companies operate in

@LatentView – Get to work with great people: Our selection process ensures that we hire only the very best, while more than 50% of our analysts and 90% of our managers are alumni / alumna of prestigious institutions such as IIMs, IITs, BITS and NITs