About Michael Page:

Michael Page, a flagship brand of PageGroup is a global leader in providing specialized recruitment consulting services across industries. Listed on the London Stock Exchange (FTSE 250) with revenues of more than GBP 1.5 Billion, we have close to 40 years of professional experience in providing tailored recruitment solutions. This has enabled us to become the preferred supplier for multiple multinational and Indian companies. We are currently operating in more than 168 offices across 39 countries worldwide and have been present in the Asia Pacific region for over 25 years.

In line with our commitment to this region and emerging markets, we launched our operations in India in January 2011 and are offering career opportunities to ambitious and tenacious individuals to join us as a Consultant who are keen to excel in a passionate, fast-paced and meritocratic environment. Current opportunities are available in our Bangalore, Mumbai and Gurgaon offices covering Mid to Senior level recruitment across 13+ disciplines and industries.

Areas of Responsibilities:

As a B2B Solution Sales Consultant, you will:

- Manage a spectrum of clients in Fortune-500, Large and Small Enterprises and SMBs
- Define your own strategy of development in line with the global strategy
- Acquire and develop your own portfolio of clients and candidates through networking and commercial actions
- Select and present the most suitable candidates to the clients - advise both clients and candidates during the assignment
- Partner with senior stakeholders within client organizations in determining and anticipating their human capital requirements
- Become a reference in your market while having ambitious business development objectives

As a Successful Applicant, you should have:

- A solid track record of success in your education/ career
- The ability to influence and effectively communicate at every level of an organization
- Minimum one year of pre-MBA experience*
- Skills such as initiative, resilience, and drive for impact-based results

   Students who demonstrate a strong flair for client facing roles would be preferred*

What's on offer:

- Unlimited potential for career progression - 87% of our Directors were promoted from within including our CEO
- Industry leading training and development throughout your career
- Market leading CTC package plus excellent, uncapped bonus potential
- International career opportunities to work within our worldwide network of offices