Piramal Foundation

Job Position: Program Leader – Organisation Development (OD)

Job Location: Remote (preferably New Delhi)

Organization Overview:

Piramal Foundation (PF) is a change management organisation that supports Public Education System Leaders in improving the learning levels of students by enabling people and embedding technology.

PF was founded with the objective of strengthening the public education system of the country by transforming the new generation of leaders in education. PF's goal is to gain expertise in leveraging multi-level partnership with state governments to catalyse the turn-around of failing schools.

Function Overview w

Organization Development (OD) function manages HR transformation projects across the organization. This function is responsible for developing and integrating projects across HR disciplines to achieve strategic business goals and organizational objectives in partnership with the organization's senior leaders. Some of the key areas on which this function works are organizational competencies, performance management, career paths, job-levelling, compensation benchmarking, HR policies and culture transformation.

Position Overview

A Program Leader in OD is responsible for developing products, tools and strategy for HR transformation within the organization leading to high-performance through leadership development of 2000+ staff. The work involves working closely with the organization's leadership team and will help build capabilities of the Program Leader in designing and implementing products and processes for systemic change within organizations while collaborating with different functions staff and external stakeholders. This position reports to Program Manager- Organization Development.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Ideate and develop concept and implementation strategy for organizational HR transformation initiatives
- Develop tools to support effective integration of organizational HR transformation initiatives
- Design communication documents to communicate evolving people strategy to leadership team and staff
- Assist organization's leadership team in embedding HR transformation initiatives within their businesses
- Develop and implement the organization's performance management processes
- Provide consulting solutions to other HR business lines and projects

Required skills & attributes:

- Ability to learn-unlearn-relearn at speed, think analytically and solve problems
- Ability to collaborate with and a diverse set of stakeholders
- Ability to make effective use of business communication software (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook)
- Ability to manage high level of stress and highly ambiguous environments

Previous Experience: The role is open to all Gandhi Fellows who have completed the fellowship

Language Proficiency: Good written and oral communication in English.

Education: Minimum Bachelors or equivalent in any discipline