sploot

About us:

We're on a mission to make pet parenting error-free!

Our journey started in 2019 when our founders Garima and Arnav decided they wanted to make a dent in the pet care space. At sploot, we want to enable pet parents to manage their pets' health and wellness needs in a holistic manner. sploot app offers a safe space to ask questions and interact with other pet parents enabling them to learn from the community. We're currently developing revenue channels by offering essential services like Dog Walking, Fresh food delivery subscriptions, and pet behavior workshops.

About the role:

We are looking for a management trainee to help us develop and implement our growth strategies. This position is best suited for candidates who want to gain valuable experience in a managerial role with advancement potential.

The management trainee role is focused on providing the trainee an overview of working with several departments including but not limited to Marketing, Product, Tech, Operations, and Business Development. The program is designed to provide an immersive learning opportunity and understand the business from multiple perspectives. This will help the candidate to grasp the breadth and depth of the business while providing fresh insights on the various standard operating procedures.

What are we looking for?

- A curious learner
- Willingness to work with multiple teams
- Enthusiasm
- Available to join full-time from office (Gurgaon) after graduating.

What you'll love about us:

- 5 day work week
- Work that stays at work
- Growth Enabling office (Opportunities to network, fireside chats, and collaborative environment)
- Monthly interactive activity sessions (Not the boring ones, promise!)
- Regular cute dog visitors
