Associate Manager, WiTAce

Objective

The Associate Manager, is accountable for :

1. Managing clients interface
2. Designing and implementing solutions and programs, for clients
3. Supporting the lead partners on WITAce initiatives.

Role provides a great in-depth exposure to effective to sales, marketing and strategy skills, bringing market insight and ideas and providing opportunity to deploy and scaled them across clients.

Responsibilities

- Create the plan for clients for products
- Understand the science and psychology of diversity and ensure all the HR and business touch points (policies, products etc.) across the organization are designed with inclusion in mind
- Create and manage annual client summit. Forward planning to have content to launch/update on. Pride, Women's Day, cultural celebrations etc
- Lead end-to-end projects (flexible working, reconnecting women to work, supporting minority to succeed)
- Work cross functionally across HR and with brand/marketing/CSR to find white space and new ideas that will differentiate company
- Create toolkits and train business and HR
- Develop a stream of thought leadership articles on social
- Represent the organization at conferences and key thought leadership forums
- Support the sales team to share the positive company story as it develops
- Moves the dial on diversity and inclusion metrics

Skills & Competencies

- Thinker and high empathy
- Good verbal and written communication skills
- Technology savvy
- Cross-functional relationship-building
- Ability to analyse data and draw insights to drive effective leadership discussions and decisions