better food for more people

Associate Program Manager - Sustainability

Experience

2+ years

Who we are?

Zomato embodies a culture of ownership, creativity, resilience and growth. It is the net sum of its people - who want to create one of the best and most ambitious food companies in the world.

Imagine yourself making a tangible difference in building a sustainable, diverse and inclusive Zomato, solving problems with a customer-first approach, and being surrounded with teams that support and inspire you to be the best version of yourself, every single day.

What will you do?

As an Associate Program Manager in the Sustainability Team, you will be using your critical thinking and strategic problem-solving skills to build and scale green initiatives of Zomato.

- Curate sustainability reporting through a collection of non-financial data ranging from plastic waste reporting to gender diversity numbers
- Lead health and safety and sustainable packaging programs for everyone in the value chain from delivery partners to customers
- Lead diversity and inclusion programs for Zomato
- Collaborate internally with the marketing and communications team to design sustainability campaigns
- Research and write articles to share Zomato's learnings and views on sustainability

We are looking for someone who is:

- An ambitious professional with over 2 years of experience in the sustainability function of a consulting firm or a listed corporate
- Proficient in GRI framework and sustainability reporting
- Articulate in writing and has excellent comprehension skills
- Curious and has a penchant for thinking the impossible
