zomato

better food for more people

Key Accounts Manager

Experience

3+ years

Who we are?

Zomato embodies a culture of ownership, creativity, resilience and growth. It is the net sum of its people - who want to create one of the best and most ambitious food companies in the world.

Imagine yourself being the Zomato ambassador for our restaurant partners, closely operating and solving problems at the very core, and being surrounded with teams that support and inspire you to be the best version of yourself, every single day.

We are looking for someone who is:

- An ambitious professional with around 3 years of experience in C-level partnerships
- Impact-oriented and has a natural desire to drive business growth
- Customer-focused and enjoys working autonomously
- Passionate to identify business opportunities within data patterns
- Curious and has a penchant for thinking the impossible

What will you do?

As a Key Account Manager, you will use your relationship management skills to drive business growth and build collaborative partnerships with our enterprise (national-level) restaurant partners.

- Build and manage strong relationships with stakeholders across our national key accounts
- Partner and co-create a business growth strategy based on markets trends and needs
- Analyse operational metrics and identify new opportunities to unlock additional value for our partners
- Collaborate internally to drive world class service delivery for our partners

How to apply?

Join us, and together we can unlock the future of food – a future where everybody is eating better food, no matter where they are, and what they can afford.

If this message was forwarded to you by a Zoman, we have some good news. Talk to them and find out if you are the right fit. Once they say yes, all you have to do is share your CV and a 1-minute video with them and we'll get in touch with you.

Explore our blog for insightful articles, personal reflections, impactful resources, and ideas that inspire us at Zomato.

