About the Company

Avendus Capital is India's leading entrepreneur-focused financial services firm. Avendus offers a wide gamut of differentiated solutions across Investment Banking, Wealth Management, Asset Management, and Credit Solutions for the country's thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem. The firm is a trusted partner to India's market leaders, digital unicorns, and wealth creators. With a team of 100+ investment bankers, Avendus is the largest and the most prolific Investment Bank in India. Avendus is majority-owned by KKR.

Position: Analyst – Equity Capital Markets

Role & Responsibilities

- Prepare pitch books, industry reports, company-focused discussion documents for capital markets deals
- Study & analyse different business & financial models across industries
- Perform due diligence, research, analysis, and documentation of live transactions
- Manage delivery of projects on ECM side, including capital market updates, newsletters, shareholder / ownership analysis, IPO analysis, new issuance analysis, company profiles etc.
- Work on multiple ongoing mandates from pitching, Pre-deal Investor Education (PDIE), investor target analysis, shadow book building to pricing discussions and driving investor momentum
- Analyse various sectors from the perspective of shareholding momentum, peer group analysis, elevator pitching and positioning the deal with a differentiating factor for a successful selling story
- Sync internal stakeholders – the internal regulatory team, sector coverage team, institutional sales, trading as well as investors, clients and other BRLMs for coherent and seamless deal execution
- Manage and take high ownership in client relationships along with the manager
- Assist in identification of business opportunities
- Maintain real-time market knowledge that drives equity markets

Required Background

- Under-Graduation from Tier 1 Engineering/ Economics/ Commerce Institutes