Job Description-Brand Manager
Area of Responsibility	Description of Responsibility
Market Research & Strategies	-Study the market trends in terms of retail audit and consumer off take data to identify brand need gap fit -Devise and implement marketing strategies for the brand , identify research needs , provide necessary brief to MR and implement actions based on findings - Conduct market research to test 4Ps of marketing and monitoring the performance of implemented strategies
Media Deployment	- Brief and coordinate with media buying agency for development of media campaigns - Develop consumer promotions and monitor their ROI - Design , implement and monitor various BTL activities and activations for the brand - Identify appropriate media channels to deliver message in a cost effective manner
New Product & Packaging Development and Launch	- Through market study of trends and emerging segments, identify the latent consumer needs, growth opportunities for consumer franchise through launch of new and innovatiove flavours & products while working closely with the R&D department - Write appropriate briefs to communication and R&D teams for NPD launches - Understand the consumer requirements and develop a competitive value proposition for the customers through packaging, R&D, Sales & distribution departments
Costs and P&L	- Use the understanding of costs, product margins etc. to develop appropriate and cognizant plans for the brand
Communication Development	- Define and manage the brand communication strategy - Prepare briefs and coordinate with ad agency for development of ad campaigns, packaging designs etc.
Sales & Distribution	Coordinate with the Sales & Distribution team to implement the strategies devised for the brand to drive volume & profitability
Brand Strategy	Assist the CMO in yearly master plan creation for the brand - eg: target geographies, planned budgets etc.