Job Description

TITLE	Business Development Manager - Institutional
ROLE	The incumbent shall identify, develop, nurture and manage institutional relationships to meet the business and outreach goals of the Foundation.
REPORTING	This position reports to Head – Institutional Relationships at Edunet Foundation
RESPONSIBILITIES	The incumbent will be responsible for the following: • Relationship management with academic institutions (schools and/or colleges), government entities and non-government entities in an identified region. • Meeting and exceeding monthly, quarterly and annual outreach goals in terms of (a) number of institutions and/or institutional entities, (b) number of learners engaged with our programs – quantitatively as well as qualitatively and (c) connections between participating entities for the benefit of the program. • Establishing and managing collaborations with relevant stakeholders by doing the following: • Contacting potential stakeholders via email or phone to pitch programs and identify synergies with their initiatives. • Conducting meetings – on phone, online or face to face - to develop and nurture relationships. • Formalizing partnerships/collaborations and ensuring that collaborations are meaningful and win-win. • Building and strengthening these relationships • Working with internal stakeholders to ensure that goals are met • Maintaining a structured log of all outreach activities. • Conducting periodic reviews with external stakeholders • Sending regular reports and providing feedback to management about what is and is not working on timely basis
LOCATION & TRAVEL	Bangalore Some local travel may be required.
EDUCATION & WORK EXPERIENCE	• Minimum Bachelor's degree from a good institution/university • Preferably MBA • Must have 2 to 4 years of relevant work experience of working with educational institutions
LANGUAGE SKILLS	Other than proficiency with English and Kannada
SKILLS & ATTRIBUTES	The incumbent shall have the following skills • Strong communication, presentation and interpersonal skills • Commitment to work with aligned timelines • Strong client-facing and teamwork skills • Attention to detail • Strong organizational skills, including multitasking and time-management • Self-motivated and ability to work independently with minimal supervision • Outcome/Goal oriented • We also expect the incumbent to be highly ethical with highest levels of integrity.

WHAT THE ORGANISATION PROVIDES	• Balanced work environment to ensure work-life balance • Measurable short term and long terms goals to ensure career growth • Opportunities /exposure to contribute to distinct innovative academic programs offered by the organization through varied corporate sponsors • We offer all eligible employees the option to work from home, other than when it is necessary to go meet a client and/or have an internal meeting.