

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Founded in 2009, Futureworks is recognized for being a pioneer in the field of admissions consulting. We have worked with 10,000+ students to counsel them to get into the most competitive universities abroad – both in one-on-one and workshop formats. Our students have achieved tremendous results with 500+ offers to Ivy's, 2500+ offers to top 30 US Universities, 300+ offers top 5 UK Universities and $15 M in scholarships. 98% of our applicants get invited to Oxbridge for interview and 95% of students invited to Oxbridge for interview get admitted. We work with students across India, U.S, U.K. France, Singapore, Thailand, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Kenya, Nigeria and Dubai.

We believe in a holistic process in which we first help students to discover and explore their interests, translate them into meaningful academic, career and personal goals. Then, we develop a detailed plan to build a strong set of academic and extracurricular achievements, a unique positioning and narrative Focused on building a students' skills – in reasoning and logical thinking, research, writing, speaking and networking – we help them in the application process, in college and much beyond.

Passionate about building skills, we have been involved in developing and leading training programs since 2000, designing a 4 credit college course for IES Abroad that runs the programming for the top 200 US universities whose students study abroad in India and helping to design and pilot a high school program on Entrepreneurship with Columbia Business School which is now offered globally.

Futureworks' unique approach is driven by our founder's extensive US corporate experience. Kavita Singh has worked for leading companies such as Mars, Colgate-Palmolive and WebMD in the US. At Mars Inc. and Colgate Palmolive she not only led the launch of new products but also drove the redesign of innovation processes to drive breakthrough innovation. As Executive Director at WebMD she was instrumental in redefining the strategy for the wellness segment, growing her business line 4x and launching several innovative new products. Kavita holds a Bachelor of Arts degree (Hons) in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from the University of Oxford and an MBA degree from Columbia Business School with concentrations in Finance, Management and Marketing.

JOB DESCRIPTION: ADMISSIONS COUNSELOR

We are looking for candidates who are highly engaged and passionate about helping match students with the right colleges and guiding them in building a stand out application that represents their unique interests, personality and background.

As an Admissions Counselor, your role will involve

- Preparing and delivering student orientation sessions and welcome kit.

- Preparing and delivering student sessions at interim time periods on key aspects of the applications process – such as college selection, essay writing, filling out the common application form, recommendation writing and so on.
- Comprehending clients' needs and translating them into appropriate positioning strategies and roadmaps with a customized set of academic and extracurricular activities.
- Brainstorming, feedback, editing and proofreading of project proposals, essays, resumes, recommendations, application for competitions, for summer programs, for college admissions or any other aspect of the admissions process.
- Researching and maintaining information on college applications, summer programs, competitions, such as deadlines, requirements and changes in process as well as colleges and their academic and non-academic offerings.
- Development and delivery of workshops or other such educational programs that the company offers or plans to offer.
- Writing of essays, blog posts, social media posts, application brochures or other such documents required by the company.

CTC

The CTC range for this position is Rs. 1-1.5 lakhs/month

HOW TO APPLY

Please email your CV and 3 writing samples to kavita@futureworks.co.in and ensure your message is entitled 'Applying for Admissions Counselor position'.