JD_Management Trainee, Worker Protection – Migrants Resilience Collaborative

2023

Hiring for:	Management Trainee, Worker Protection - Migrants Resilience Collaborative
Apply by:
Ideal joining:
Number of positions:	1
For application and queries, write to:	careers@jansahasindia.org
Read more about us at:	www.jansahas.org

About Jan Sahas: Jan Sahas, established in the year 2000, is a not for profit grassroots organization committed to promote the development and protect the rights of socially excluded communities with special focus on girls and women through the eradication of all forms of bondage including manual scavenging and caste-based prostitution; empowerment of adolescent girls and women to end violence and gender justice, skill development for dignified livelihoods and social entrepreneurship; legal aid for access to justice and reform in the criminal justice system; support in education; food and nutrition security; land and agriculture development; develop barefoot lawyers to build victim or survivors as leader and empowerment of communities through capacity and organization building.

About MRC: Migrants Resilience Collaborative (MRC) is a grassroots-led multi-stakeholder collaborative of non-profit, philanthropic, and private sector actors focused on ensuring dignity, safety, security, and mobility for vulnerable migrant families across India. The Collaborative will be India's largest grassroots-led collaborative, and largest non-governmental initiative dedicated to the migrant workers and their families.

We will support 10 million workers and their families in 100 districts and cities (across source and destination) over the next 5 years with the following outcomes:

1. Delivering social security entitlements
2. Providing access to responsible and ethical recruitment
3. Strengthening tracking, worker protections, welfare, and redressal
4. Enhancing financial inclusion through facilitating delivery of appropriate financial products

To know more please visit at: https://www.jansahas.org/mrc

Summary: The Management Trainee, Worker Protection will closely be working with the Lead, Worker Protection for refining and implementing activities across prevention, response, rehabilitation, and systemic reforms related to the prevention of violation of rights of workers. These include refining and implementing SOPs to identify cases of bonded labour, forced labour, trafficking, violence, and sexual offences; catalysing legal and other support to survivors; and engaging with the government across levels to strengthen the safety net for workers. The Management Trainee will report to the Lead, Worker Protection.

Key responsibilities:

The Management Trainee, Worker Protection will be jointly responsible for the following activities to advance MRC's overall goals:

- Develop strategies to enhance worker protection support to migrant and unorganised workers
- Develop and implement activities related to prevention, response and rehabilitation including but not limited to overseeing the helpline operations, case management, provision of legal and other support to survivors, and rehabilitation support
- Design/refine and implement processes and systems critical to the delivery of worker protection support as outlined above
- Hire, train, and coach team members including both full-time and part-time lawyers as needed
- Supervise day-to-day activities and monitor worker protection operations across all operational districts and ensure timely achievement of program output and outcome
- Work closely with the MEL team to analyse data and prepare reports to refine worker protection activities
- Develop knowledge material and represent Jan Sahas/MRC in conferences and seminars

Experience and qualification:

- Masters-level degree (or higher) in law, public policy, social science or other relevant streams
- Experience in legal aid programs and/or design and delivery of development programs is preferred
- Experience of working with non-government organisations, donor and philanthropic organisations or development consulting organisations is preferred
- Proficiency in MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- High proficiency in verbal and written English and Hindi. Proficiency in other Indian languages is preferred

Inter-personal skills:

- Strong leadership and multitasking skills; proven ability to be flexible in a team-oriented approach with diverse group of people
- Strong field orientation and empathy towards the needs of migrants
- Ability to remain calm especially during peak hours or intense situations
- Ability to quickly adopt diversity, culture and ethos of the organization
- Strong coaching and leadership skills, ability to motivate employees
- Strong networking skills particularly with key stakeholders in the development sector

Base Location: Delhi or Dewas

Compensation: Commensurate with experience, and competitive based on non-profit standards in India.

We encourage you to apply if you are interested in working with us in our journey to ensure dignity and equality for all.

How to Apply: Interested applicants can submit their cover letter and CV in a single PDF document. The cover letter should address "why you believe you are the right fit for the Migrants Resilience Collaborative" in no more than 300 words.

Please mention "Management Trainee, Worker Protection" in the subject line.

Jan Sahas gives equal opportunity to all individuals irrespective of their gender, caste, religion, race, sexual orientation etc. The organization promotes opportunities for women and candidates belonging to marginalized backgrounds.