JD_Management Trainee Program – Migrants Resilience Collaborative

2023

Hiring for:	Program Lead, Migrants Resilience Collaborative
Apply by:
Ideal joining:
Number of positions:	2
For application and queries, write to:	careers@jansahasindia.org
Read more about us at:	www.jansahas.org

About Jan Sahas: Jan Sahas, established in the year 2000, is a not for profit grassroots organization committed to promote the development and protect the rights of socially excluded communities with special focus on girls and women through the eradication of all forms of bondage including manual scavenging and caste-based prostitution; empowerment of adolescent girls and women to end violence and gender justice, skill development for dignified livelihoods and social entrepreneurship; legal aid for access to justice and reform in the criminal justice system; support in education; food and nutrition security; land and agriculture development; develop barefoot lawyers to build victim or survivors as leader and empowerment of communities through capacity and organization building.

About MRC: Migrants Resilience Collaborative (MRC) is a grassroots-led multi-stakeholder collaborative of non-profit, philanthropic, and private sector actors focused on ensuring dignity, safety, security, and mobility for vulnerable migrant families across India. The Collaborative will be India's largest grassroots-led collaborative, and largest non-governmental initiative dedicated to the migrant workers and their families.

We will support 10 million workers and their families in 100 districts and cities (across source and destination) over the next 5 years with the following outcomes:

1. Delivering social security entitlements
2. Providing access to responsible and ethical recruitment
3. Strengthening tracking, worker protections, welfare, and redressal
4. Enhancing financial inclusion through facilitating delivery of appropriate financial products

To know more please visit at: https://www.jansahas.org/mrc

Summary: The Management Trainee, Program will work closely with the Senior Lead, Program, MRC. The Management Trainee will support the Senior Program Lead to guide the overall implementation of program activities under MRC. These include social security and entitlement, worker protection, and engagement with the government and industry. The Management Trainee will report to the Senior Program Lead and will play a key role in implementing MRC's vision to support migrants in India.

Key responsibilities:

The Management Trainee will be responsible for the following activities to advance MRC's overall goals together with the Senior Program Lead:

- Develop and implement activities related to MRC including but not limited to social security entitlement and worker protection

- Design/refine and implement processes and systems critical to the MRC program delivery
- Hire, train, and coach team members as needed
- Supervise day-to-day activities and monitor field operations and ensure timely achievement of program output and outcome
- Work closely with the MEL team to analyse data and prepare reports to refine program activities
- Closely work with the research team to design and implement field-level researches to refine program and build a nuanced understanding of migrant communities
- Liaise with other MRC teams such as Partnership and Communication to ensure smooth delivery of MRC program
- Develop knowledge material and represent Jan Sahas/MRC in conferences and seminars

Experience and qualification:

- Masters-level degree (or higher) in rural development, public policy, social science or other relevant streams
- Experience of working with non-government organisations, donor and philanthropic organisations or development consulting organisations is preferred
- Proficiency in MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- High proficiency in verbal and written English and Hindi. Proficiency in other Indian languages is preferred

Inter-personal skills:

- Strong leadership and multitasking skills; proven ability to be flexible in a team-oriented approach with diverse group of people
- Strong field orientation and empathy towards the needs of migrants
- Ability to remain calm especially during peak hours or intense situations
- Ability to quickly adopt diversity, culture and ethos of the organization
- Strong coaching and leadership skills, ability to motivate employees
- Strong networking skills particularly with key stakeholders in the development sector

Base Location: Delhi or Dewas

Compensation: Commensurate with experience, and competitive based on non-profit standards in India.

We encourage you to apply if you are interested in working with us in our journey to ensure dignity and equality for all.

How to Apply: Interested applicants can submit their cover letter and CV in a single PDF document. The cover letter should address "why you believe you are the right fit for the Migrants Resilience Collaborative" in no more than 300 words.

Please mention "Management Trainee, Program" in the subject line.

Jan Sahas gives equal opportunity to all individuals irrespective of their gender, caste, religion, race, sexual orientation etc. The organization promotes opportunities for women and candidates belonging to marginalized backgrounds.