Job Description

About the Organisation

Jan Sahas is a grassroots-level organisation working on the issues of sexual violence against women and children, and forced labour and safe migration. It focuses on prevention, response, rehabilitation and system transformation, and is survivor-centric and community-based in its approaches. It provides legal, land rights, mental health, livelihoods and skill development, and early childhood care and education as cross-cutting interventions. The organisation works intensively across various states including Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Telangana, Maharashtra, Delhi - NCR and Uttar Pradesh.

Position: Counsellor/Psychologist

Locations:

Indore, Khargone, Chhatarpur (Madhya Pradesh)
Hyderabad (Telangana)

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Provide counselling to members of marginalised and excluded communities, survivors of sexual violence, and our frontline workers
- Aid in monthly training of our team of barefoot counsellors on counselling
- Aid in awareness and sensitization initiatives on mental health
- Aid in capacity building of governmental and non-governmental stakeholders
- Oversee the functioning of our mental health program in pre-decided clusters
- Regularly visit our field offices in various districts and travel within their field areas to conduct sessions and awareness activities
- Maintain documentation on cases and prepare reports

Eligibility and Required Skills:

- Minimum Post-graduate degree in Applied Psychology, Social Work in Mental Health, or any related mental health field
- Fluency in written and spoken Hindi and English
- Experience in providing psychotherapeutic or counselling services is recommended
- Freshers are encouraged to apply
- Willingness to work at the grassroots level and travel to remote locations

Please send your CV, cover letter, current CTC and expected salary to counselling@jansahasindia.org and careers@jansahasindia.org.

Notes:

1. Jan Sahas is an equal opportunities employer.
2. Compensation will commensurate with experience and qualifications.
3. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.