We are dedicated, open-access partners with a commitment to excellence in delivering the services our customers expect from us. With extensive experience, deep knowledge and worldwide presence across financial markets, we enable businesses and economies around the world to fund innovation, manage risk and create jobs. It's how we've contributed to supporting the financial stability and growth of communities and economies globally for more than 300 years. As a global organisation spanning 70 countries and one rooted in a culture of growth, opportunity, diversity and innovation, LSEG is a place where everyone can grow, develop and fulfil your potential with meaningful careers.

About the LSEG Sales Graduate Programme

As a global company our broader sales organization consists of many key teams, each of which play vital roles in the overall client journey. The LSEG Sales Graduate Programme will offer team members the opportunity to gain experience working within our sales and account management function.

The LSEG Sales Graduate Programme is a great full-time opportunity for individuals looking to accelerate their career within the sales and account management field. This program offers participants the experience of working with a variety of our products, locations and teams while developing a strong skill set to become an essential part of the sales organization.

Programme Eligibility

To be eligible you must be a recent graduate who has completed their studies in 2022 or a final year undergraduate or be a masters student and have completed all the requirements of your course before September 2023. You should be on track for a post graduate diploma / degree in business management specializing – Finance or Marketing.

In this program you can expect:

- A high level of exposure to cross-functional teams and senior leaders within the organization
- An opportunity to gain experience of interacting with different divisions of financial institutions including - Global markets, capital markets, risk and compliance & asset management
- Fast tracked training and professional development through hands on learning, specifically designed curriculum and mentorship
- To work in a highly collaborative and multi-culturally diverse team environment
- Enhanced cross-team career progression opportunities
- Involvement within key moments of the entire sales lifecycle

What we offer:

- An opportunity to launch your career in the field of sales and account management by learning about key elements of the sales lifecycle, through hands-on tasks and projects
- Collaborate with global, cross-divisional teams that play critical roles across the overall client journey

- Develop your technical understanding of a range of products, as well as your human skills as you collaborate across teams and build your own client base
- Engage with formal learning to help build your technical and human skills, and develop self-insight to define your future career ambitions
- Opportunities to earn industry recognized qualifications
- Connect with a global early careers community, access global opportunities and contribute to wider society via CSR initiatives and volunteering initiatives

Our graduates join us on a permanent basis, allowing you to explore opportunities within a secure framework. Following the initial 12-month programme you will begin a longer-term role aligned with your interests, skillset and the needs of the business.

What we are looking for:

We are passionate about recruiting people who can understand the full breadth of our organisation, how it fits together, how it functions – and are interested in playing a part of our development, as it grows and diversifies.

- You should have a demonstrable interest in financial markets, which you've built through your studies, work experience or extracurricular activities.
- A curiosity for data and an ability to analyse information to draw conclusions and propose solutions.
- Individuals who are able to connect the dots and think strategically.
- The environment we work in is fast paced, you'll need to demonstrate focus, resilience and the flexibility to adapt to changing demands.
- People who can collaborate and enjoy speaking with others, using their strong communication skills in the process.

You will stand out to us if you can demonstrate and recognise that what you achieve is equally important as how you achieve it.
