About The Role
Position: Communications Associate - Social Impact
Place: Mumbai

About Us
Founded in 2017, ON PURPOSE exists to use the power of communications to drive social change in India. It works with clients and organizations in 5 broad areas: Climate Action, Public Health, Education, Gender and Tech4Good.

The Culture We Proudly Offer
More than words. ON PURPOSE has been at the forefront of defining what a progressive workplace looks like. Our focus on building a safe and welcoming workplace for all has led us to innovate with policies like '6 days of paid leave for all menstruating employees'; 12 weeks of parental leave for all non-birthing people and a fixed lunch hour that is mentioned in our signatures. We also have a team of 'D&I Ke Gunde' who are trained to help us challenge our biases and create a more inclusive workplace. Don't just take our word for it - in 2022, ON PURPOSE won 'Best Culture of the Year', 'Best Diversity and Inclusion Champion of the Year' and Best 'PR Team of the Year' at Campaign India's PR Awards. We've only just begun and would love to have you part of our growing tribe of people committed to social change.

Your Role and Responsibilities
A Communications Associate - Social Impact is responsible for running communications programes for organisations in the development sector focussing on strategic philanthropy, climate action, public health, gender and social impact. Client specific responsibilities also include timely reporting and documentation. The Communications Associate is expected to contribute to company growth by ensuring quality in deliverables, listening and monitoring, drafting new campaigns, pitches and decks, and by actively identifying, pursuing and realizing new business opportunities.

- Strategy & Planning
  - Developing strategic media plans on a monthly, quarterly and annual basis, that demonstrate a deep understanding of the sector and competitor landscape, and helps highlight the causes being championed by organisations
- Client Relationship Management:
  - Earn client trust as a partner who can be relied upon to deliver results by timely deliveries and keeping all the parties (client & manager) involved, proactively anticipate and resolve day to day issues in an effective manner
- Content Development:
  - Be able to prepare high quality documents, examples: first drafts of: strategy documents, communication plans and proposals and reviews for client meetings
- Media Management:
  - Cultivate strong media relations and content skills; should have the ability and willingness to pitch stories to the media; and constantly touch base for relevant opportunities
  - Carefully assess the changing needs of the development sector media - traditional as well as new age media and apprise clients periodically through intelligence sharing
  - Manage client events- press conferences, media briefings, interactions and follow-ups at national and regional level both
  - Ensure regular media opportunities to achieve clients goals and meet scope of work requirement, as agreed for in annual contract
- Others:
  - Build trust within the team by encouraging an atmosphere of openness and transparency
  - Anticipate potential issues related to own work and commitments in a timely manner

- Participate in training and development initiatives as required to acquire the required skills

How We'd Expect You To Split Your Time

Very thoughtfully. But here's an indicative split as a guide:

- Media Managements: 40%
- Client Relationship Management: 30%
- Content and documentation: 30%

What You'll Need (must haves for the role) :

- 0 to 1 year of relevant experience (Previous relevant experience in communications via placement year, or internship would be desirable but not essential)
- A passion for social impact and the development sector
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and negotiation skills
- Highly organized and solution-oriented, and able to prioritize
- Self-starter and able to work efficiently under pressure
- Strong customer service and project management skills

What Would Be Nice to Have

- Degree in Arts
- Freshly brewed coffee-making skills. But don't worry, we won't judge you for it.

What You Can Expect From Us

- A safe, yet challenging work environment: As a high-growth company, our team members are regularly tasked with taking on more responsibility than you would typically get at a larger, more established organization.
- An investment in growth and learning: We're bringing the best of communication techniques to solve some of India's most troubling social issues. You'll learn and grow with us.
- A space to make your own: if you have the talent, ambition and willingness to learn, you'll most definitely find your own space in communications that you can own and hone.

ON PURPOSE is an equal opportunity employer and considers applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion or belief, sex, age, national origin, citizenship status, marital status, military/veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental disability.
