About RA Ventures?
Roshan Abbas is multi-hyphenate from having an elaborate career as a media personality donning hats of - Author, Emcee, Storyteller, TV personality, Producer, RJ, VJ to reigning the entertainment industry as a prolific serial entrepreneur leading him to build his empire to what it is today.

RA Ventures includes Kommune, RAP, XPRNC, Encompass, Crave, Glitch, Chtrbox, and investments both as an independent angel investor and through GSF and Fluid VC.

About The Role?
Working directly with Roshan entails ambiguity - the candidate has to thrive in ‘chaos’

To sum it up - Creative Problem Solver

Defining a JD for the role wouldn’t do justice to the ride the role has to offer. With companies across the spectrum you always have something new everyday. No two days are the same.

A few broad responsibilities entail -

- Taking ownership of key initiatives
- Collaborating with other folks in the central team and other stakeholders to drive projects to closure
- Solving problems through not only structured but creative thinking, research, project planning, and on-ground execution
- Owning responsibilities across domains such as strategy, marketing, operations, and partnerships to unlock non-linear growth opportunities
- Work directly with the founder on existing business and agenda.
- Work on special projects which are essential for the growth of the businesses
- Develop innovation roadmap and new market entry strategies
- Build partnerships and synergies with external stakeholders and companies in the space
- Cobuild IPs and new ventures centred around the Creator economy
