At Ruder Finn, we put excellence over seniority and our people are our core strength. Every individual strives to experiment while delivering campaigns and consultancy that is not just media-centric, but also has an impact on the larger business. Responding to the requirement and market need, we are also focused on executing and communicating with the right stakeholders flawlessly, across platforms.

Job Description: Associate Account Executive, Ruder Finn India

Project Management

- Owns client relationships and works to contribute strategic value beyond day-to-day operations.
- Shares responsibility for 100% client retention by maintaining mid to senior level relationships allowing us to: proactively identify client risks or opportunities and manage client teams to effectively respond to these client needs.
- Able to write first draft of press releases, questions for Q&As, pitch notes, media invites
- Able to write first draft of blogs and bylines & demonstrate writing ability
- Able to write contact reports/meeting minutes, & client emails regarding account management/admin (excluding invoices) within RF standards
- Able to structure a briefing document
- Able to recognise key media influencers
- Able to pitch interviews to media and secure attendance
- Maintain all client related reports – WIP reports, Daily reports, Month report
- Own and update the media database your clients
- Ability to think integrated campaigns

Capabilities

- Own daily monitoring for 6 months & produce daily activities with recommendations
- Build good journalist / influencer relationships
- Participate in brainstorming
- Be a part of New business Pitches

Team / people skills

- Be proactive & a contributing team member
- Follow RF processes as part of a team