Job Title: Research Associate (TOR)

Job Responsibilities: We are looking for candidate with an exposure to working on research projects in the development sector (NGO) who would be willing to work for an exciting program for two years. We will expect the candidate to:

1. Support the functioning of the research activities at the research site during implementation of main study data collection period
2. Ensure smooth functioning of all research activities including data collection and analysis
3. Get trained in all study tools to be administered as part of the study.
4. Administer clinical assessment tools including Griffiths Mental Development Scale and INCLEN Diagnostic tools on typical children and those with neurodevelopmental disorders
5. Get trained on EEG and administer it on a subset of the study population
6. Support training of frontline health workers on all study tools
7. Regularly supervise field workers in administration of all study tools throughout the data collection period
8. Follow and ensure confidentiality of data and ensure secure and timely entry of the collected data
9. Draft scientific reports and other project activities reports under supervision
10. Participate in joint project activities including project meetings, academic activities in coordination with the research team
11. Report to co-Principal investigator and senior research coordinators and provide as well as receive regular feedback on all activities.
12. Have regular coordination and communication with all team members of the project.
13. Establish and maintain clear communication and effective working relationships with key external stakeholders, including local service providers, health professionals and collaborators
14. Work collaboratively with Sangath administrative personnel and participate in Sangath activities and meetings
15. Any other project related duties as assigned by the supervisor.

Essential

1. Postgraduate degree in Clinical Psychology
2. Atleast 1 year of experience of working with children with Neuro-developmental disorders (NDD's)
3. Experience administering developmental assessments in early childhood
4. Fluency in English and Hindi, with demonstrated experience of writing clinical materials in plain English
5. Good computing skills & excellent language skills
6. Excellent communication/interpersonal skills
7. Leadership ability
8. Commitment of minimum of 2 years

Desirable

1. Experience in mental health research
2. Knowledge of software (NVivo/STATA) and training in research methods (at least 2 years)

Remuneration: As per Sangath Salary Structure.

Apply with CV at careers@sangath.in by 20th October, 2022