Staff Benefits – June 2022

What does it mean to work at Teach For India?

As a Staff member at Teach For India, you are part of a movement that is working to provide every Indian child with an excellent education, and as a result, the best chance at a life free of poverty and filled with love.

Phase 4 is our Decade of Possibility. For that, we're excited to work with a community that is passionate about creating change in the education sector of India, driven by our Phase 4 priorities.

You are working towards ambitious goals. The journey is exciting and hugely rewarding but it has it's challenges along the way. Recognising this, we have sought to create an environment that enables you to focus on your goals, outcomes and personal development while staying happy and balanced.

This document lays out how special this work is as well as the different ways in which Teach For India aspires to take care of you as you work relentlessly in pursuit of your goals.

We are committed to creating a workplace that will provide our people

01

A community as a member of one of the most established and visionary movements in the education sector in India which is currently at a pivotal point in its journey.

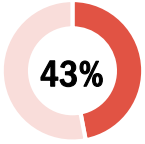

Through this movement, you will work to address real-world, complex problems.

Of the World's poorest children live in India

Of 14-18 year olds in India cannot solve a simple division problem

Of 14 year olds in India cannot read an English sentence

Teach For India currently works with 32,000 students across 260 under-resourced schools in India. Over the 10+ years of our work has lead to our 5200+ strong Alumni community serving 33 million children across India. 1 in 10 Indian children are now reached by a Teach for India Alumnus.

Through this community, you will work with like minded individuals who root what they do and who they are in our 5 core values

REFLECTION	INTEGRITY	EXCELLENCE	SENSE OF POSSIBILITY	LOVE
We look at our own actions and mindsets in order to progress. We give and receive honest feedback. We believe that learning from our mistakes makes us stronger	We live by our commitments and ensure they are aligned with our words and actions. We are honest with others and ourselves.	We don't compare ourselves to the alternative but set an urgent and ambitious bar that we keep pushing higher.	We set bold, ambitious goals and expectations in order to meet our vision. We approach our new work and new ideas with openness and optimism.	We care deeply about what we do & treat others with empathy, respect, compassion and gratitude. We keep children at the center of everything we do and do whatever it takes for them.
