Who we are:

Founded on a vision to make inaccessible luxury available, we have been on a journey of unwavering dedication to our customers for over 30 years. We have had the privilege of curating extraordinary experiences for travellers, and we continue to innovate and push the boundaries of luxury travel today across the globe.

Aabee has recently been featured as part of Forbes' 200 Select Companies with Global Business Potential.

Discover more about our story, team, and philosophy on https://aabee.in/

Job Purpose:

The purpose of the Brand and Marketing Manager role is to consistently communicate the value proposition of AaBee to its clientele using the right messaging techniques.

In this capacity, your primary responsibility will be to curate and execute a strategically tailored marketing and communication plan in alignment with the brand's strategy and identity, with the aim to enhance brand equity of AaBee.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Developing and implementing a brand strategy in line with the organisation's business goals.
2. Creating and executing an integrated marketing & communication plan with budget allocations.
3. Ensuring brand visibility and engagement with our partners and customers across channels.
4. Designing and implementing innovative marketing and communication campaigns that effectively convey our positioning and unique value proposition to customers.
5. Leading the development of key brand, marketing, and communication collateral across media
6. Onboarding and managing agency partners and vendors for design, printing, social media, digital marketing, PR & events, and media management, based on requirements.

7. Driving performance marketing campaigns and monitoring their effectiveness.
8. Establishing and monitoring key performance metrics to evaluate the effectiveness of brand, marketing, and communication interventions and adjust plans accordingly to maximise ROI.
9. Closely collaborating with market research, business development, operations, and HR teams to drive stakeholder-led marketing & communication efforts.

Required qualifications and skills:

1. 4 to 10 years of work experience in brand, marketing, and communication.
2. Excellent communication & interpersonal skills.
3. Strong analytical skills.
4. Post-Graduation/MBA will be preferred.