About Amuse Labs
Since its beginning at Stanford University in 2013, Amuse Labs has established itself in the global publishers' market, as a leading provider of smart games platform, for top leading news publishers of the world, such as The Washington Post, The Guardian, The Irish Times, Gulf News, The Los Angeles Times, El Pais, The Indian Express, and others, as a SaaS product.

Amuse Labs was co-founded by Sudheendra Hangal, a Ph.D. from Stanford's Computer Science Department; Jaya Hangal, a member of the team that developed Java at Sun Microsystems; and John Temple, a veteran journalist who has been Managing Editor of the Washington Post and President at First Look Media.

About the role
The company plans to expand this market further and also foray into new market segments with promising applications like advertising. To support these plans, the company seeks individuals interested in helping grow the business and willing to be flexible to take on an active role working across different areas in the business team.

You will play a pivotal role in driving the company's sales pipeline and expanding our customer base by handling, generating and qualifying leads through inbound/outbound prospecting efforts, engaging potential clients, and nurturing relationships and qualifying opportunities.

Key responsibilities:
- Research and gather information about target accounts and key decision-makers to personalize outreach efforts and effectively communicate our value proposition.
- Drive inbound and outbound prospecting activities to identify and qualify potential leads through various channels including email campaigns, social media outreach, events, etc.
- Engage with prospects via phone, email, and other channels to initiate conversations, understand their needs and identify opportunities for using our platform.
- Qualify leads based on set criteria and schedule appointments or product demos, ensuring a smooth handoff of qualified opportunities.
- Collaborate closely with the sales and marketing teams to develop targeted campaigns, messaging, and plans to drive lead generation and accelerate the sales cycle.
- Utilize CRM tools to manage and track lead activities, update prospect information, and ensure accurate and timely reporting of sales activity.
- Develop a strong understanding of the product, competition, industry trends to deliver high quality demos, articulate our value proposition, address prospect questions, etc.
- Maintain communication and follow through with prospective customers

Key skills/attributes:
- MBA, with 1-2 years of experience in sales development, lead generation, or a similar role, in a SaaS or technology product firms
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written, with the ability to engage and build rapport with prospects.

- Highly motivated and results-driven with a proactive attitude and a willingness to take initiative.
- Resourceful, detail-oriented, highly organized, hands-on and enthusiastic about growing the business.
- Learning mindset and ability to adapt to changing circumstances in a start-up environment.
- Knowledge of multiple languages would be a plus.
- International exposure would be a plus.
- Personal interest in puzzles and smart games is desirable.
