Brief Role Information
Position: Associate/Senior Associate, Organization Development (Partnerships)
Location: Majuli Island, Assam
Remuneration: ₹ 45,000/- to ₹ 60,000/- per month based on skill set & experience

Ayang Trust
Ayang Trust is a social purpose organization working towards building the ecosystem for sustainable self empowered communities in Northeast India through interventions in quality education and livelihoods. At the heart of the organization is The Hummingbird School started in January 2017 to provide a contextual and holistic education to the children of Majuli, set up completely in partnership with the local community. We are on a mission to support 5000 women across 10 districts in their journey of economic freedom and agency, and ensure quality and positive learning experience for 10,000 children in the next 5 years.

The opportunity
We are seeking to onboard a Partnerships Associate/Senior Associate who will be responsible for building and nurturing new and old partners of Ayang to meet the resources needed to fulfill our mission. They will work with the leadership team to form direct connections between the work of Ayang and opportunities for funding. The goal is to create the highest standard of partnership – leaving donors with an incredible experience. Ideal candidates are natural conveners, great listeners, and can stretch people's thinking to make things happen. They can easily identify natural partners.

Key Responsibilities:

- Identification and making the ask: Research and track potential funding sources. Respond to donor calls for proposals with excellent communication collateral including proposals and decks, represent organization at donor meetings and undertake follow-up of potential funding opportunities.

- Relationships Development and Management: Maintain the relationships that are developed and continue to find ways to engage donors.

- Program Execution and Fulfillment: Manage the execution of promised deliverables like quarterly/annual reports, utilization certificates, media collateral etc. to our donors and ensure expectations have been met or exceeded.

- Others: Collaborate and work with the Communications Team to create and manage presence of Ayang across various channels to keep all our partners abreast of our work timely and authentically. Work on expanding the team as the organization grows and contribute to the work of the larger Ayang team as the need arises. Work closely with the leadership team on coordinating donor relationship management.

Key role requirements. You:
- enjoy meeting and engaging with people, and derive energy from social situations
- have prior experience in partnership building and/or stakeholder management
- have the ability to make persuasive and motivating presentations
- can build relationships with people from all walks of life
- have excellent design, documentation and reporting skills
- are fluent in English, professional proficiency in Hindi/Assamese would be a critical advantage
- possess a strong work ethic with excellent attention to detail and time management skills
- are empathetic and a team player
- are open to learning and responsive to feedback

Application process
- If there is a fit, especially with key responsibilities & role requirements, then email your resume to hr@ayang.org.in along with a cover letter.
- Subsequent rounds include pre-work and interview.