In this role, you will be responsible for originating and executing leadership search assignments & managing a P&L of your own.

Indicative Responsibilities:

- Lead and contribute to business development efforts by identifying and developing new clients and mining existing relationships.
- Manage your own portfolio of clients in a particular sector or function & manage the GTM strategy.
- Complete responsibility of P&L: Drive your team to meet topline & profitability targets.
- Build and maintain strong relationships with clients, understand their business, culture, and hiring objective and serve as a trusted advisor to them.
- Devise a sourcing strategy for the search using comprehensive research methodologies and conduct in-depth interviews and candidate assessments.
- Collaborate with a team of Research Associates and Consultants to ensure effective and efficient search execution.
- Hire, train and guide team members, fostering a collaborative and high-performance culture.
- Stay well-informed of industry trends, market dynamics, and talent landscape to provide valuable insights to clients.

Ideal Candidate:

- Postgraduate or other Advance degree(s) from premier institutes. Relevant industry certifications would be a plus.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to build rapport with clients and candidates.
- Entrepreneurial mindset with a knack to think out-of-the-box and come up with creative solutions to address client needs.
- Strong commercial acumen and Results-driven mindset.
- Demonstrated track record of exceeding targets in a B2B sales role/ recruitment or advisory role.

Compensation: Industry leading compensation & incentive structure
