FOSTER AND FORGE FOUNDATION

Human Resource Manager

Introduction

Foster & Forge Foundation was established in 2015 with the belief that every child has the potential to positively impact their environment & contribute meaningfully to the growth of the country.

Foster and Forge is establishing a new pedagogical approach for teachers in government schools across Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, and Uttarakhand. This new pedagogy is designed to provide an experiential learning approach that builds empathy and problem-solving. The final outcome is children who have an increased application and understanding of concepts taught from subjects in class and an increased future employability potential.

Northstar

In 2024, we are making a strategic pivot .
We have a bold and ambitious 5 year journey ahead of us that aims to reach 1 million teachers who will build belief and mastery on Flux pedagogy to transform the lives of 35 million children annually through an experiential education .

About the Role

The Human Resource Manager will spearhead practices and objectives that will provide an employee-oriented, high-performance culture, based on the values of the organization.

The Human Resource Manager will create spaces where everyone works to realize their personal vision and strengthen the vision and mission of the organization.

In addition, the Human Resource Manager is responsible for recruiting the right talent who can invest their skills and abilities in the overall development of the organization.

Roles and Responsibilities

Reinforce the organization's core values and culture, by building a deep sense of commitment to our work, to mastery in individual roles, and to team and organizational goals.

1. Learning and Development
    - Collaborate with the COO/CEO for employee growth and development
    - Conceptualizing and executing the overall Learning and Engagement Strategy across the organization in collaboration with the central team.
    - Developing criteria for evaluating the effectiveness of training activities and providing regular updates to the leadership team, along with recommendations for improvements as appropriate.
    - Developing and conducting planned and spot audits to identify training needs and opportunities for performance improvement.

2. Recruitment
    - Designing and Implementing a competency framework that will allow the organization to anchor acquisition and development in key competencies for the team at every level within the organization.
    - Source, screen, and interview candidates to assess their qualifications and fit for the role & organization
    - Conduct reference checks and coordinate background checks for selected candidates.
    - Rolling out the induction plan & its milestones for the new hires.
    - Maintain a strong pipeline of candidates by collaborating with placement cells of esteemed universities.

3. Team Engagement
    - Promote well-being in the organization, plan and conduct surveys from time to time to measure employee satisfaction.
    - Conduct sessions, and expectation-resetting conversations where deemed fit by the HR Manager or the Central Team.
    - Plan and drive employee engagement calendar including fun Fridays, R&R initiatives, annual retreats, etc.

4. Policies
    - Ensuring compliance with government laws and regulations as well as organizational policies & processes.
    - Orienting all teams to organizational policies at the time of onboarding and also periodically.
    - Resolving employee-grievances in a timely manner by recommending appropriate action, interpreting and administering policies, conducting investigations and documenting the same.
    - Conducting annual policy reviews in collaboration with the team.

5. Performance Management
    - Monitoring and evaluating employee progress and development by implementing an evaluation and proficiency assessment process that is consistent with the organization's appraisal, developmental, and feedback standards.
    - Support the performance management process by assisting in goal-setting, performance evaluations, and development plans.

6. HR Administration
    - Maintain employee records and ensure data accuracy in HR systems.
    - Generate HR reports and metrics for management as needed such as recruitment report, PoSH report, CSP report, etc.
    - Administration of HR programs, such as benefits, leave management, and employee recognition.
    - Conduct exit interviews and strategize from the trends for organizational improvement.

Experience

- 4-5 years of work experience (minimum) in the development sector.
- 2 years should have been spent in an operations leadership role.
- Master's degree in human resource, organizational behavior or relevant discipline for People Operations.

Competencies and Skills

- Understanding of human resources and personnel management.
- Ability to build consensus and relationships across teams.
- Experience with non-government organization governance.
- Reporting and presentation skills.
- Excellent communication and public speaking skills.
- Proven negotiation skills.
- Ability to understand the pulse of the ecosystem and make well-informed decisions.
- Ability to inspire confidence and create trust in the team.
- Analytical abilities and Problem-solving skills.
- Computer skills - fluency in MS Office suite and Google Suite, and knowledge of a designing tool would be a plus.

Other Information

The position of HR Manager will require a full-time commitment.

- The location of the main office will be in Noida.
- Might need to travel to different districts based on the need.

Compensation*: 7-9 LPA.

Compensation for this position is competitive and commensurate to expertise.

To know more about us please follow the links below:

Registered address: 549 Mount Kailash Apartments, East Of Kailash, New Delhi – 110065
Operations address-office 2, 7th floor Building 18,Sector 142, Noida 2001301 info@fosterandforge.org