ABOUT THE COMPANY

Established in 2009, FutureWorks is a trailblazer in admissions consulting, guiding over 10,000 students worldwide to secure spots in prestigious universities. Our unique approach focuses on holistic development, aiming to discover and nurture students' interests into meaningful academic and personal goals. With an exceptional success rate, we've facilitated 500+ Ivy League offers, 2500+ top 30 US University offers, 300+ top 5 UK University offers, and secured $15 million in scholarships.
We believe in a holistic process in which we first help students to discover and explore their interests, translate them into meaningful academic, career, and personal goals. Then, we develop a detailed plan to build a strong set of academic and extracurricular achievements, a unique positioning and narrative Focused on building students' skills – in reasoning and logical thinking, research, writing, speaking and networking – we help them in the application process, in college, and much beyond.
Passionate about building skills, we have been involved in developing and leading training programs since 2000, designing a 4 credit college course for IES Abroad that runs the programming for the top 200 US universities whose students study abroad in India and helping to design and pilot a high school program on Entrepreneurship with Columbia Business School which is now offered globally. Currently, we run the Emerging India Research Program and the Research Scholars Fellowship. In 2023, our Founder, Kavita Singh was honored for her work in education with St. Hugh's College, University of Oxford naming their flagship essay prize after her – the Kavita Singh Essay Prize in Politics, Philosophy and Economics.
