Research, Content and Communications at Globestar Edutech Pvt. Ltd

About the Globestar Edutech Pvt Ltd:

Globestar Edutech Pvt Ltd. is a group Company that includes TNI Career Counselling (TCC) and Globestar Consulting Services (GCS). TCC provides premium career and admissions advisory for both individuals and institutions, counseling 2500+ students a year grades 9-12 for activities and admissions to 12+ countries. GCS offers market entry, enrollment management, recruiting, training, curriculum building, technology, and other solutions to institutions. The company is headquartered in BKC Mumbai, with branches in Pune, Bangalore, and Delhi. Mr. Dhaval Mehta and Ms Hansa Sachdeva are leading this mission to work with top institutional clients.

Brief: Globestar team is looking for an energetic and enterprising young professional to join the team as an Research, Content and Communications. This is an exciting opportunity to work closely with the senior leadership of Globestar to build a unique and ambitious education consulting practice including Saas based platform for schools and universities in India. Globestar comprises TCC and GCS both established brands across India working with universities like University of Michigan, Bharati Vidyapeeth, Ashoka, Shiv Nadar, Atlas and many more across the world. The Research, Content and Communications will work with the CEO & Founder, Mr. Dhaval Mehta and Ms Hansa Sachdeva under their supervision. Interested applicants may email their profile to hr@globestarcs.com

Title Summary: Research, Content and Communications dynamic professional proficient in conducting comprehensive research, crafting engaging content, and driving effective communication strategies. Proven ability to deliver high-quality research outputs, create compelling content across various platforms, and implement strategic communication initiatives for enhanced brand visibility and engagement. Further be internally focused on implementation and process improvements within the organization and coordination across multiple departments and stakeholders.

Web & Social Media: www.tnicareercounselling.com, www.instagram.com/tnicareercounselling, https://globestarcs.com/, https://www.instagram.com/globestarcs/

Employee Position: Research, Content and Communications

Office location: Kalyani Nagar, Pune, Maharashtra.

Roles and Responsibilities:

The Research, Content & Communications Specialist will play a critical role in strengthening programs using cutting edge research and developing and implementing a comprehensive content and communication strategy for Globestar so that all stakeholders are benefitted. The successful candidate will conduct research to gather insights into educational and career trends, create engaging content, and manage internal and external communications to support our clients' needs. Content for pitch presentations, marketing materials, social media, PR etc will all flow through you.

- Conduct in-depth research to identify current and future educational and career trends.
- Analyze competitor strategies and stay updated on industry best practices.
- Gather data on the needs and preferences of students, schools, and universities to inform content creation and communication strategies.
- Create high-quality, informative, and engaging content, including articles, blog posts, guides, infographics, videos, and more.
- Collaborate with schools, university representatives, students, parents and others in the ecosystem to generate resources including feedback, articles and content that will be added to our digital/print magazine and website.
- Maintain a content calendar and ensure timely delivery of content that aligns with company goals.
- Implement SEO strategies to ensure content is easily discoverable and ranks well on search engines.
- Use data and analytics to track content performance and make data-driven improvements.
- Develop and execute a communication strategy to engage with students, schools, and universities through various channels, including social media, email, newsletters, and webinars.
- Maintain consistent branding and messaging in all communications with all stakeholders
- Collaborate with schools and universities to promote our services and foster partnerships.
- Engage with students to gather feedback and ensure their needs are met.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to achieve targets
- Work with technical, print and other team members to ensure smooth on time delivery
- Develop and manage a strategy for promoting content through social media, email marketing, and other relevant platforms.
- Monitor and respond to comments and inquiries from the online community.
- Regularly report on content and communication performance, using analytics to measure the success of strategies.
- Adjust strategies based on insights and performance data, travel as required for conferences.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in Liberal Art and English with 1-2 years experience through internships or full time
- Proven experience in content creation and marketing, with a strong portfolio of published content.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Strong research and analytical skills.
- Proficiency in SEO and content optimization techniques.
- Familiarity with social media platforms and digital marketing.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Strong project management skills, including the ability to meet deadlines.
- Passion for education, student and institution engagement
- Annual salary range: 6.5-7 LPA