HOMAGE

Role: Program Manager

Location: Gurgaon, Haryana

About Homage:

Homage is the office of Aditya Ghosh.

Homage as an organisation works across three key verticals - providing strategic advisory to businesses and high-growth companies, social impact consulting covering key functional areas at SEWA Social Enterprises and conducting and assessing new investment opportunities as part of the broader investment thesis.

Responsibilities:

- Drive key initiatives across various business interests including advisory services to startups and portfolio companies
- Manage internal and external stakeholder updates, board or leadership presentations, reports etc.
- Interpret, simplify and prioritise relevant data/insights to drive decision making
- Facilitate cross functional collaboration to support key projects and initiatives
- Develop frameworks and scorecards to measure and track performance
- Formalise annual budgets and operating plans, as and when required
- Work across a portfolio of initiatives ranging from
- Establish internal and external communication processes and channels
- Conduct market research, competitor benchmarking, and product pricing exercises to develop more competitive strategies for different business units or social enterprises

Skill sets:

- Excellent Communication Skills
- Good Powerpoint Presentation Skills
- Good Excel Skills
- Interdisciplinary background
- Detail Oriented
- Highly Organised and Structured Thinking
- Self-Driven with a Growth Mindset

Eligibility Criteria:

- 3-5years of strong, proven work experience is a must from a Consulting or a Start-up role
- Self-starter, comfortable with ambiguity and a quick learner with ability to adapt to new situations or projects