Job Description

Job Title - Partnerships Lead
Function - Strategic Communication, Partnership Development, and Team Leadership
Location - Hybrid, Delhi
Years of Experience - 6-8 years in relevant fields, preferably in non-profits/CSOs
Educational Qualification - Bachelor's degree in relevant Development Studies or a related field; a Master's degree would be a plus

About Indus Action -

At Indus Action, we seek empathetic, driven, and action-oriented team members who align with our intention of making public welfare unlock happen as a 'Do-Tank.' We desire candidates who want to partner with the Sarkar (state) and Samaaj (communities) in service of our audacious mission of systematically making welfare access sustainable and frictionless for our vulnerable citizens and their families.

Our vision of a progressive and inclusive society is replicated internally through our equitable compensation structures, transparent organisational policies, and supportive work culture. As an aspiring Deliberately Developmental Organisation (DDO) combined with our operating values of Listen.Act.Change. - we commit to nurturing active citizens and supporting enterprising individuals with a growth mindset, professionally and personally. At Indus Action, you are valued beyond your role or title. Instead of an open-door policy, we have a no-door policy, where everyone has access to and collaborates with everyone. We offer high cross-functional learning within the ecosystem as well. If you are about building for impact at scale, experimenting, and learning with joy along the way, then Indus Action is the place for you, and we have been looking for you!'

Position Summary -

We seek a partnership lead as a fundamental pillar in expanding our outreach and impact. The role involves cultivating partnerships to enhance fundraising avenues. The successful candidate will have the dynamism to build relationships that foster financial support and resonate with our mission and values.

Role and Responsibilities (including KRAs)

- Partnerships and Fundraising:
  - Initiate and nurture sustainable partnerships
  - Strategies and lead fundraising campaigns with clear deliverables on grant writing, submissions and in-person engagement with partners
- Team Leadership and Mentoring:
  - Mentor and foster growth within the partnerships & communications team
  - Enhance visibility through strategic relationships with external stakeholders

Knowledge and Technical Skills

- A proven track record in partnership establishment and fundraising
- Exceptional writing skills, with a demonstrated ability to create compelling and tailored content for various audiences and platforms.

Behavioural Competencies and Values

- Citizen-Focused Mindset: Upholding the principle of placing the vulnerable citizen at the centre of every initiative
- Entrepreneurial Energy: Showcasing ownership of time and resources to yield solutions
- Dealing with Ambiguity: Maintaining grace under pressure and showcasing a progressive approach
- Growth Mindset: Perceiving every experience as a learning curve and an opportunity for growth
- Collaboration: Cultivating productive partnerships internally and externally

Education and Experience -

The ideal candidate would hold a relevant Bachelor's degree; a Master's degree would be an added advantage. We seek an individual with 6-8 years of relevant work experience, preferably within a non-profit environment.

Compensation-

The compensation will be based on the Indus Action's compensation benchmarking rubric. The compensation range will depend on the qualifications, experience and fit to the role.

The candidate would need to use his/her laptop, and the organisation will bear the annual maintenance cost of up to 12,000 per year as per actuals.

Interested candidates are encouraged to forward their resume and a portfolio showcasing previous successful partnerships, fundraising initiatives, and any relevant content creation or graphic design work to here. Following a screening process, shortlisted candidates will be asked to submit a pre-work assignment, with the entire process aimed to be closed within 15 days post-submission, including at least two rounds of interviews.
