Job Title: Specialist - Research, Global CVX BIG Team
MMC Business Unit: Marsh
MMGS Function: Knowledge Services

As a part of the Strategic Research team in Knowledge Services function of MMGS, the candidate will support our sales and client facing colleagues globally, with sales enablement, working on high-impact research engagements

Marsh continues to re-imagine a best-in-class client engagement standard. The Client Value Experience (CVX) is our client engagement framework designed to maximize the value we deliver for clients, through a consistent client experience that leverages our global best practices and resources. As a specialist in the Client Value Experience Business Intelligence Group (BIG) team, you will be responsible for developing best in class company reports, to bring this framework to life for Client Executives and Clients around the world.

What can you expect?

- Be a part of a colleague and client-centric firm with a culture underpinned by respect for inclusion, diversity and belonging; frequently recognized as such by respected platforms
- Work with a highly energetic and smart group of colleagues, pushing the edge of research and innovation across capabilities
- Get exposure to critical risks facing businesses across industries and regions
- Be a part of a global team with a stimulating and open environment that fosters creative thinking and encourages diverse views
- Work closely with sales & broking colleagues, across multiple geographies globally

What is in it for you?

- Discover what is great about working at Marsh McLennan – from the opportunities that our size brings, to our commitment to our communities and understanding the benefits you will receive. We are four businesses with one PURPOSE: helping companies meet the challenges of our time.
- As a global leader in insurance broking and risk management, we are devoted to finding diverse individuals who are committed to the success of our clients and our organisation. Joining us will provide a solid foundation for you to accelerate your career in the risk and insurance industry. You will join a team of talented professionals from across the globe, who are dedicated to helping clients manage some of the world's most challenging and complex risks. We can promise you extraordinary challenges, extraordinary colleagues, and the opportunity to make a difference.
- Our rich history has created a client service culture that we believe is second to none. Our commitments to Diversity and Inclusion, Corporate Social Responsibility, and sustainability demonstrate our commitment to stand for what is right

We will count on you to:

- Invest in understanding our business thoroughly
- Deliver high-impact research engagements ─ projects commissioned by leaders and sales communities within the firm
- Maintain a regular stakeholder/project manager interaction for constant flow of information on delivery status, expectations, exceptions, process changes and new opportunities
- Develop strong relationships with colleagues and stakeholders through high quality project delivery, responsiveness and agile and clear communication
- Contribute to process improvement of the team by making relevant recommendations and executing the process initiatives to enhance the efficiency and quality of overall delivery

What you need to have:

- Masters / Bachelors in Economics or Masters in Business Administration (MBA) / equivalent post-graduation certification from a reputed institute
- 1 to 2 years of experience in research (qualitative | secondary) experience, at a leading professional services / market intelligence / research firm
- Exposure in building frameworks, drawing data driven insights and performing analysis aligned to the 'Sales Strategy', focusing on clients / prospects, markets, competitors, products and regulatory development
- Deep understanding of financial concepts, global marketplace, key trends, economic and geo-political developments, key business and financial risks
- Strong understanding of strategy frameworks (PESTEL, Porter's 5 forces, BCG Matrix, SWOT, etc.) and their applications in bringing out cutting edge insights
- Strong analytical, critical thinking, problem solving, storyboarding and report writing skills, and excellent communication skills – verbal, writing, listening
- Advanced level of proficiency in MS Office - PowerPoint, Word, Excel, and SharePoint
- Extensive exposure of commercial databases such as S&P Cap IQ, Factiva, Global Data, A.M Best Insurance service etc.

What makes you stand out?

- Certificate in insurance such as Chartered Insurance Institute (CII) / Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU)
- Exposure to working in global settings
- Experience in risk advisory or insurance / re-insurance related research or advisory support in related verticals
