Our Firm

The Mintz Group is a global investigative services firm that gathers hidden facts all over the world for corporations, law firms, financial institutions and non-profit organizations. We uncover the critical information our clients need, including:

- Before Relationships, including business deals and executive hires. We conduct due diligence investigations into the backgrounds and reputations of companies and their executives;
- During Disputes. We find admissible evidence that law firms and in-house counsel need to prevail, whether in court or at the negotiating table; and
- After Frauds. We connect the dots by finding out what happened, how it happened and who did it.

The Mintz Group offers a robust training program and we are proud of our commitment to each teammate's professional development and career growth.

About the Position

The Mintz Group is seeking inquisitive, detail-oriented and highly motivated investigators for its office in Mumbai. As an investigator, you will be responsible for conducting in-depth research on companies and individuals across the world to help clients uncover legal, regulatory and reputational risks. You will join a team of bright, curious and collaborative investigators who speak more than 30 languages in our offices across the world.

Responsibilities

- Conduct due diligence research on people and companies around the world to assist clients in hiring and investment decisions;
- Dig into public records and data repositories, from complex litigation records and SEC filings to corporate records and regulatory actions;
- Analyze and distill findings into comprehensive written reports for clients;
- Brief case managers and partners on findings in a clear and professional manner;
- Conduct other types of investigations, such as research to support litigators and compliance professionals.

Required Skills

- Undergraduate degree in relevant fields such as journalism, political science, international relations, political science, sociology or international relations from an accredited university; advanced degree a plus;
- Ability to analyze, summarize and communicate large amounts of complex information in a concise and compelling manner;

- Strong and creative research skills;
- Strong writing skills and superior attention to detail;
- Ability to juggle casework and meet strict, often overlapping, deadlines;
- English fluency and strong writing skills in English mandatory.

Desired Skills

- 0 - 3 years prior work / internship experience in fields like research, journalism, law or finance;
- Working proficiency in another language;
- Experience with open source research and public records databases like Westlaw and LexisNexis.

Interview Process:

- Round 1 – Personal Interview with HR Head
- Round 2 – Written Test
- Round 3 – Final Interview with Senior Manager & Managing Director