ABOUT US:

We are a boutique creative agency specialising in experiential marketing, brand solutions & activations and live entertainment joining the dots between youth, culture and engagement. We do that through campaigns and activations with India's biggest brands, live entertainment with India's most happening artists and creating experiences at various youth touchpoints.

We are a multi-disciplinary team of creatives, strategists, techies and thinkers – as well as the producers, makers and doers who make it all happen, being a one stop solution; handling everything from ideation to execution.

- We've partnered with brands like Hero Motocorp, Philips, Bingo and Myntra to create branded experiences and zones at colleges, festivals, and events
- We've created zones at festivals like Sunburn, Dreamhack, and Comic Con to let attendees experience brand offerings in an engaging and thoughtful manner
- We work with top artists including Amit Trivedi and Sunidhi Chauhan to program them at concerts and festivals, and handle production, marketing and much more

Over the years we've created spaces for youth to come together, engage and create community & culture- building relationships. We've also helped create a substantial business impact for our partner brands!

We're shaping today's culture by creating it, one experience at a time.

LOCATION: Delhi - NCR

THE POSITION:

A brand solutions associate working on campaigns and solutions for brands, within the areas of experiential marketing, live entertainment, and popular culture.

ABOUT THE ROLE:

- You will be working on brand solutions campaigns of select clients, and collaborate with Spectal's other teams (production, design, creative, programming, etc) to execute ideas, and bring them to life within budgets and timelines while reporting to Spectal's Senior Brand Solutions Associate
- You will be the main POC for your clients for day to day operations, to ensure that the brand objectives and campaign direction are aligned.
- You will brainstorm and ideate on brand briefs and recommend effective solutions ranging from on-ground events to digital campaigns. You'll then create pitch decks for these ideas, guided by your team leaders.
- You'll help in the preparation of detailed campaign reports by collecting learnings, metrics, statistics and other data from the campaign, to ensure that we learn as much as we can from what we've done (so we can keep improving with every project).

SPECTAL

QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILLS:

- Graduates or post graduates in any field are welcome to apply.
- 0-2 years of experience in events, experiential marketing, or media. Freshers are encouraged to apply if they have a strong interest in marketing as well as culture - both pop culture, and independent sub-cultures growing across India and the world!
- Teamwork should be your strong suit, and you must be comfortable working with cross-functional teams.

- You must have excellent communication, negotiation and persuasion skills.
- Work ethic is everything. You must be self-motivated to do the work and meet (if not exceed) targets.
- You know how to keep learning - from clients, from analysis of past trends, from other parallel industries, and from other team members.

WORKING WITH US COMES WITH PERKS

- We're a small company with no hierarchies. Everybody contributes ideas, everybody gets facetime with the client, and everybody gets a chance to take their idea to completion. Nothing you do will sit in a PPT and languish. If the idea is good, it will get translated into real work right away.
- Because of this, you will grow. Fast. There is no place for stagnation at Spectal, so if you do a good job your position, responsibilities and salary will increase faster than you'd expect.
- You will be working on big brands and IPs right away, and you'll end up learning way more than you expect. Whatever you do here will stay with you for the rest of your career, and you'll see its impact in big ways and small. That impact is yours to showcase. You did that. We helped you do that.
