JOB DESCRIPTION

Thinkthrough Consulting (TTC) is a multidisciplinary professional services firm that specializes in providing advisory support for sustainable development initiatives. We engage with clients to address critical challenges by providing access to the best possible expertise & solutions for achieving efficiency and creating the desired impact. TTC provides a complete range of sustainable development advisory solutions in domains covering development sector advisory, sustainability and climate change, human resource, governance & risk advisory and business support services. For more information, please visit our Website: http://www.ttcglocal.com/

1. RESPONSIBILITIES

Project Management:

- Understand client and project requirements.
- Demonstrate a good level of knowledge and judgment, to develop well-reasoned and researched solutions on client issues.
- Assist in preparation of high quality consulting/research proposals, concept notes, tools for studies/research and monitoring and evaluation.
- Assist the team in planning, executing and closing of projects.
- Conduct primary/secondary research to gather information as per project requirements.
- Conduct field visits as per project requirements.
- Collate and analyze data and prepare high quality reports.
- Assist the team in execution of multiple engagements and competing priorities.
- Ensure quality and conceptual rigor across the practice in a consistent manner.
- Demonstrate technical competence in thematic areas / functional domains and gain specialization in a particular area of expertise.
- Seek and implement continuous improvements in all aspects of functioning.
- Effective mentorship and transfer of knowledge to subordinates.

2. MINIMUM QUALIFICATION & EXPERIENCE

- Post graduate preferably in social sciences or equivalent or MBA from a premier institution with a strong academic background.
- Minimum 2 years of relevant experience after post-graduation in a reputed management consulting firm or development sector organization.
- Multi-sectoral experience (Corporate Social Responsibility, Education and Skill Development, Livelihood, NRM, Health and Nutrition, Human Rights, Gender) would be a significant advantage.

- Exposure to and familiarity with responding to social sector consulting RFPs/ EoIs/ Tender documents of the UN country team (UNICEF, UN Women, UNDP), The World Bank, IFC, ADB and other Government Departments etc. will be preferable.

3. REQUIRED ABILITIES & PROFICIENCIES

- Experience in social research, program design, monitoring and evaluation would be preferable.
- Proven abilities in client retention and client servicing.
- Ability to meet deadlines.
- Exposure to development sector consulting space.
- Proficiency in computers -MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint etc.
- Proficiency in writing reports and documenting information.
- Good written and verbal communication skills.

4. DESIRED BEHAVIOURAL ATTRIBUTES

- Dynamic and self-motivated person with a go-getter attitude.
- Ability to meet deadlines with minimum supervision.
- Maturity to deal with clients.
- Ability to work in a team and meet TTC growth targets.
- Sound moral and ethical values.
- Willingness to travel across locations and stay at project sites.