Job Description (JD): South Content & Talent Development - Associate/Manager

What We Do:

- Tulsea is a talent management company that represents India's leading content creators. Tulsea clients are the creative voices behind content such as: Bombay Begums, Paatal Lok, Mirzapur, Made in Heaven, October, Piku, AK vs AK, Bad Boy Billionaires, Lipstick Under My Burkha, Sacred Games, Scam 1992: The Harshad Mehta Story, and many more.
- We are seeking enterprising professionals who are passionate about media and entertainment, and interested in pursuing a career in representation and management to join our team. If you are a multi-tasker with great problem-solving abilities and communication skills, who can work efficiently in a demanding environment, please send your CV and cover letter to careers@tulsea.com with the subject - "Careers at Tulsea / Ref: ---".

What We Are Looking For:

- Someone to engage with and support the Content and Talent Development team across their efforts to grow Tulsea's presence in the South Indian industry and generate opportunities for our roster of clients.
- Title: Associate/Manager
- Type of Position: Full time
- Location: Mumbai; The work week comprises 5 days, Monday - Friday, however, flexibility will be required on weekends to fulfill the duties of the role.

Job Description:

- You will work with the Content and Talent Development, supervising coverages and feedback for submitted materials while carrying out tasks including but not limited to:
    - Managing and developing the careers of established and emerging Tulsea talent using previous experience and market knowledge.
    - Leveraging your network of industry contacts to elevate the profile of Tulsea’s clients to create leads, as well as negotiate and close deals.
    - Developing relationships with brands and agencies using different tools to create email campaigns, supervise our communication, and manage incoming leads.
    - Reading scripts, consuming content across all mediums, and staying updated on what’s happening in the industry.
    - Spearheading analyses of industry pipeline programs / labs / film festivals (i.e., MAMI, IFFA, NFDC Screenwriters’ Lab, etc.) to assess and identify talent.
    - Creating pitch decks, presentations, and deal memos.

- Participating in meetings with talent agents, managers, producers, and creative talent.
- Working with Tulsea's talent pool of writers and directors; and tracking current and potential clients.
- Briefing internal teams on concepts and supervising them periodically to ensure projects are being executed in alignment with the company vision.
- Creating a best-in-class leadership team through coaching and mentoring.
- Attending team meetings and discussing project workflows, industry trends, and new creative opportunities / partnerships.
- Maintaining and managing the consistency of quality across the team, assessing and refining current processes to best facilitate business opportunities, as well as improve creativity and scale.
- Building an inclusive and diverse team with varied perspectives, backgrounds, and experiences to ensure Tulsea is meeting the global needs of the business.
- Supervise the organization and maintenance of electronic databases and files.

Job Requirements:

- Someone who is interested in and understands the landscape of South Indian cinema and content — Tamil, Malayalam, Kannada and Telugu — across films, series, and television.
  - You can interact with colleagues at all levels, have high levels of integrity, are self-motivated, proactive, efficient, and able to work in an ambiguous and unstructured environment.
  - You have excellent presentation, interpersonal, critical-thinking, and communication skills, with experience communicating complex / abstract concepts clearly and persuasively.
  - You have conversational fluency in Hindi.
  - You like the idea of working with and representing the interests of writers, directors, and other talent who come together to create content.
  - You are interested in developments in the Indian and global entertainment landscape.
  - You are interested in understanding and taking content decisions and executing them.
  - You are capable of working well under pressure, meeting tight deadlines, managing multiple projects, and competing priorities.
  - You are proficient in Microsoft Office and Google Suite.
