- We are seeking enterprising professionals who are passionate about media and entertainment, and interested in pursuing a career in representation and management. If you are a multi-tasker with great problem-solving abilities and communication skills, who can work efficiently in a demanding environment; join our team!

What We Are Looking For:

- Someone to engage with and support the Business Development team in their efforts to grow Tulsea's presence and generate opportunities for our roster of clients.
- Title: Intern - The initial three - six months will be the probation period, post which the candidate's performance will be reviewed and a full-time job may be offered.
- Location: Mumbai; The work week comprises six days, Monday - Saturday, however, flexibility will be required to fulfill the duties of the role.

Job Responsibilities:

- You will learn client service procedures while simultaneously carrying out creative and administrative tasks including but not limited to:
    - Identifying and expanding opportunities for talent representation.
    - Researching and staying updated on what's happening in the industry to
    - identify ways to grow the broader media and entertainment ecosystem.
    - Reading scripts, watching movies / TV shows, and creating pitch decks.
    - Working with Tulsea's talent pool of writers and directors.
    - Writing artist biographies, memos, and promotional material.
    - Creating and tracking content and talent databases for current and future projects.
    - Managing talent logistics for auditions, shoots, brand partnerships, product launches, and events, and ensuring that contractual obligations are met.
    - Fostering relationships with external executives to identify and develop concepts around talent for potential projects.
    - Attending networking events, showcases, premieres, table reads, set visits, and screenings to further develop entertainment contacts and represent both our clients as well as our company.
    - Scheduling calls / meetings across multiple time zones and maintaining calendars.

- Handling documentation of expenses / filing and following up on invoicing on behalf of our clients and Tulsea.
- Collaborating with employees for information and research materials.
- Participating in brainstorms, pitches, and client meetings and documenting agenda items.
- Overseeing corporate gifting for client and executive milestone events including birthdays, promotions, baby, awards/honors, start / wrap of production, etc..

Job Requirements:

- Someone who is interested in and understands the landscape of Indian cinema and content — Hindi and regional — across films, series, and television.
  - You are self-motivated, proactive, have high levels of integrity, and can work in an ambiguous and unstructured environment.
  - organizational, time management, and project management skills
  - You have excellent analytical, prioritization, critical-thinking, and communication skills.
  - You are interested in developments in the Indian entertainment industry and have conversational fluency in Hindi.
  - You are interested in understanding how content decisions are made and executed.
  - You like the idea of working with and representing the interests of writers, directors, and other talent who come together to create content.
  - You are capable of working well under pressure, meeting tight deadlines, managing multiple projects, and competing priorities.
  - You are proficient in Microsoft Office and Google Suite.
