VNV Advisory

ABOUT VNV ADVISORY SERVICES

VNV Advisory Services is a social enterprise & a project developer of community based Climate Resilient (Mitigation & Adaptation) Programs, in areas of sustainable agriculture, social forestry, mangroves restoration, clean cooking, rural energy access, water access and waste management; that empower vulnerable communities to adapt and transform to the changing climatic patterns. VNV works with vulnerable communities and ensures improved livelihoods through the development of our carbon financed programs. Our work encompasses over 6 million rural households and 3 million hectares of agricultural land & forest areas under management across the South Asian & African regions. We work with over 100 NGOs and implementation partners in these countries.

THE PROGRAM RELATIONS TEAM

The Program Relations team acts as the liaison between the verticals at VNV, the project partner/NGO on ground, as well as our investors and clients. It's a crucial team in the organization, responsible for being the one point of contact for projects being developed as well as ongoing projects – for external stakeholders as well as teams within the organization. The team is in an expansion phase, with open positions at various levels.
